Police Find No Violence Sign On Hunter's Body

SHAWNIGAN LAKE (Special)—A six-man party which removed the skeleton of 21-year-old Kenneth Duncan from an Eagle Heights hillside, northwest of here, this afternoon reported that preliminary investigations showed there was no sign of violence on the skeleton which has laid in the woods for almost three years.

Members of the party were Coroner A. E. Green, and Dr. John U. Coleman of Duncan, Cpl. J. A. Henry and Constable Bobby Ross of the B.C. Police and Charles Burr and Gordon Sword, both of Victoria and heads of the former Pacific Coast Militia Rangers.

Further investigations of the skeleton will be conducted by the coroner and Dr. Coleman at Duncan.

Near the skeleton the party found a watch and fob. The remains will be taken to the Davis Funeral Chapel at Duncan pending inquest arrangements.

The party had spent 90 minutes trekking from the end of a road into the spot where the body laid.

Skeleton of the youth, who was an employee of the Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd., Victoria, and disappeared on a hunting expedition Nov. 27, 1943, was discovered Wednesday by a five-man search party which had been combing the area for two days after three Victoria hunters had discovered a shoe with human bones in it last Sunday.

Duncan had been reported missing. The body was in a hollow, so that it would not have been found unless a searcher proceeded into the hollow.

The spot where the body was found was a mile and a half from the cabin at which Duncan was last seen.

Teeth marks on the shoe and the fact that it was found 30 feet from the other remains, cause police to believe that the body had been mutilated by a black bear. Bears are plentiful in the area.

Beside the examination of the skeleton, the rifle will be studied to determine if a shot had been fired.

WIDE SEARCH

The mysterious disappearance of young Duncan resulted in one of the widest searches organized in the woods of Vancouver Island in years. The search was carried on for weeks after the youth disappeared with up to 200 men joining searchers on some days. No trace of Duncan was found.

Persistent rumors that Duncan had been killed and his body possibly disposed of in Shawnigan Lake led police to reopen their investigations in January, 1945. Late in the month navy divers set up raft equipment on Shawnigan Lake and descended to the lake floor in search of the body. No trace of the missing hunter was discovered.

Police during this investigation questioned dozens of persons, including every person known to have been in the area at the time the youth was last seen.

EXPERT WOODSMEN IN SEARCH

Taking part in the original search a few days after Duncan was missed were some of the best woodsmen on Vancouver Island, including Constable Walter Deans of Duncan, Rex Hayes, game warden; Tom Brewer, old-time prospector in the area; Neil MacKay and "Slim" Findlay, loggers who were reported to know the area like the backs of their hands.

The search was extended for miles from the spot where Duncan was last seen alone, to creeks and natural routes which hunters believed Duncan might have attempted to follow in his effort to reach civilization.

But experienced hunters and woodsmen knew that, despite the thoroughness of the search, the deep underbrush of the heavily forested hillsides of Vancouver Island often could hide for years the unexperienced who had become lost.

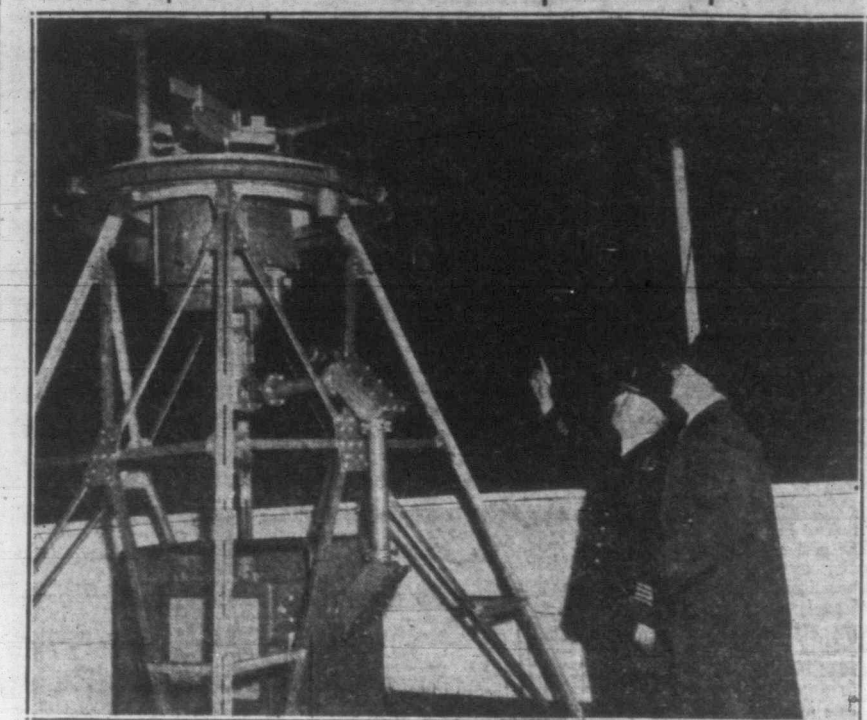

To Address Assembly

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House announced today that President Truman will address the opening session of the United Nations Assembly in New York, Oct. 23.

Above is one of the latest pictures of President Truman. It was taken at the microphones as he announced to the people of the U.S. the lifting of the ceiling on meat prices.

It Sees All, Tells All While Crew Operates Ship

Shortly after the liner Manchester Shipper had docked in Montreal harbor, Capt. D. D. Struss, took Maurice C. Cussen, Furness Withy passenger agent, to the monkey island atop his ship's wheelhouse and showed him the antenna of the ship's new radar installation. Inside the glass-enclosed compartment to which Capt. Struss is seen pointing, a revolving antenna flashes out electrical impulses for distances up to 25 miles. If the ship is in the vicinity of icebergs, other vessels, derelicts or land, the objects are outlined in a glass screen in the ship's wheelhouse. The latest of its type, the Manchester Shipper's radar will enable her to steam at full speed through fog and rain squalls. In the near future, all Manchester liners on the Canada-U.K. run will be equipped with radar.

Bodies Of 11 Leading Nazis Cremated; Now Disclosed Keitel Planned Suicide

NUERNBERG (AP)—The bodies of Hermann Goering and the 10 hanged Nazi war criminals were cremated and the ashes have been "dispersed secretly," it was officially announced today.

The announcement of the disposition of the bodies was made at 5:35 p.m. by Col. B. C. Andrus, prison commandant.

He spoke in the name of the Allied Control Council, which was in charge of all details of the hangings and burial.

A six-line communique cleared up the major mystery in the wake of the hangings. The bodies were removed from the prison at 5:35 a.m. Wednesday (8:35 p.m. Tuesday, P.S.T.) in two sealed trucks, guarded by Jeeps.

PLACES ARE SECRET

Where cremation took place was not disclosed. The dispersal details were wrapped in equal secrecy.

Prison authorities disclosed that Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel had planned, like Goering, to evade the gallows with suicide, but was foiled by a watchful guard.

As a special board of three United States army officers sought to determine how Goering managed to poison himself, Col. B. C. Andrus, the commandant, block.

Low Suggests Canadian Farmers Give Away Wheat

MOOSE JAW, Sask. (CP)

Canadian farmers should give away their surplus wheat to needy countries after domestic markets have been satisfied, Solon Low, national leader of the Social Credit Association, told the Saskatchewan Social Credit League convention here today.

He said the "export or perish" system is wrong and "we should rather concentrate on imports, using our own produce to satisfy our needs and sending only the surplus abroad. This surplus would be sold to countries that could pay, and given away to those in poor financial condition."

"If we try to sell it to needy countries, we must accept credit in return, which credit applies economic pressure on the other country. This leads to economic warfare, as the country puts up protective tariffs, and military warfare inevitably follows economic warfare."

Coffee Ceiling Off

WASHINGTON (AP)—O.P.A. today removed price lids from coffee as it speeded up the decontrol drive.

The price agency said it had approved a decontrol petition on both green and roasted coffee at all levels of distribution.

revealed the Keitel story for the first time:

Keitel had returned to prison after a court appearance one day recently and was changing to old clothing, as was customary. As he shifted his wallet he pushed something down in a fold.

GRABBED WALLET

An alert guard noticed it and grabbed the wallet. In a corner he found a long, sharp piece of metal easily capable of slashing the wrists or the throat. The prisoner refused to explain how he had got it.

Sources inside the Nuernberg jail said 12 German employees were under constant scrutiny in connection with the investigation into how Goering obtained the cyanide with which he beat the hangman.

These sources, unidentified by name, said the Germans were not under arrest, but described them as being "protectively held" until they are completely cleared of all possible complicity in the 11th-hour suicide.

OTHERS QUESTIONED

The Army Board investigating the Goering suicide, meanwhile, called in, one by one, every person who conceivably might have had some connection with the pudgy Reichsmarshal in his last days and nights in the death block.

In the meantime, the Allied Control Council's commission which conducted the executions disclosed it had translations of the three notes Goering left in his cell, but said the contents of the notes would not be divulged.

One of the notes was addressed to the prison commandant and there was immediate speculation that Goering might have told how he had got the poison and how he had concealed it—his last grim joke.

Col. B. C. Andrus, prison commandant, insisted that he believed his own personnel innocent of any wrongdoing. He said that a German lawyer, perhaps in the last days of the trial, may have given Goering the poison vial that enabled him to take his own life.

NEWS SPREAD QUICKLY

News of Goering's suicide and of the execution of the other 10 men raced swiftly through the prison to the seven defendants who escaped with prison terms, to be served eventually in Spandau Jail, Berlin. A guard said they received the news non-committally, but gave the impression they were pleased Goering had escaped the rope.

These men, including Rudolf Hess, are to be transferred to Spandau some time next month, prison reports said.

Goering's suicide still was big news in Nuernberg today. Generally, former Nazis are delighted with Goering's trick. Anti-Nazis are shocked. Everyone wants to know the answer to one question. How did he get the poison?

Double Trial In Torso Murder

HAMILTON (CP)—William Bohozuk and Donald MacLean will stand trial jointly for the mutilation killing last March of John Dick, Mr. Justice George Urquhart ruled in the Ontario Supreme Court here today.

In denying the separate trials motion from Bohozuk's counsel, the judge also turned down a defence motion which asked that the indictment against the 27-year-old steelworker be quashed.

Gerson Appeals

TORONTO (CP)—Harold Gerson, 41-year-old geological engineer, today filed an appeal against a sentence of five years for conspiring, while a government official, to communicate confidential information to Soviet Russia.

Montreal-born son of Russian parents, Gerson formerly was a key man in the War-time Munitions Department's ammunition branch.

Want 30-Hour Week

CHICAGO (AP)—The American Federation of Labor ended its two-week annual convention today with a pledge to work for establishment of a 30-hour week in industry.

Delegates approved a resolution pointing out that shorter working hours is "one of the main objects of every trade union organization" and the present 40-hour week has been in effect for some time.

Relates Killing

WINNIPEG (CP)—In sobbing tones, Mrs. Elizabeth Maud McLean told a hushed court of King's Bench here today the story of the stabbing of Claude Frederick Salisbury in the living-room of their Winnipeg apartment last June 18. Mrs. McLean is charged with the murder of her common-law husband.

She described him as the "man she waited on hand and foot, the greatest man that ever lived when he wasn't drunk."

Legislative Model

OTTAWA (CP)—The Dominion-Provincial labor conference today gave general approval to a federal proposal to amend the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act, leaving it as model collective bargaining legislation which might be adopted by the provinces on a voluntary basis.

The Dominion and provincial labor ministers who had attended the three-day meeting—ended this afternoon—also went on record favoring the holding of similar conferences annually.

1947 Liquor Permit Same As This Year

W. F. Kennedy, chairman of the B.C. Liquor Control Board, said today a liquor ration book, similar to that in use now, was being prepared for distribution to British Columbians next year. This indicated that liquor rationing would continue for some time in British Columbia.

Mr. Kennedy said the 1947 ration book had the same provisions for rationing as the 1946 book. The punch system will be used to indicate purchases made by permit-holders.

Because stocks had to be ordered so long in advance, it was difficult to predict when rationing would end, Mr. Kennedy said. With the ration book type of permit the board would be prepared for any eventuality.

Should liquor rationing be discontinued, the book will continue to be used as a permit.

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP)—The crash of a chartered east-bound passenger plane killed all 14 passengers—one a Canadian—and the crew of three during a heavy snow-storm on the level plains three miles west of here early today.

The plane, identified by a Civil Aeronautics Administration spokesman as a two-engine craft operated by the Nats Air Transport Service, a private concern run by former naval fliers, was en route from Oakland, Calif., to Chicago, and was to have stopped at Cheyenne for refueling and a change of crew, the C.A.A. said. No stop was scheduled here.

Acting Coroner E. L. Knight died later in the Laramie Hospital.

BODIES THROWN FAR

One of the bodies was hurled from the wreckage and into a barbed wire fence. Some of the bodies were found 75 yards from the plane, and others beneath bits of the debris.

The plane skidded for 300 yards before the crumpled and twisted fuselage came to a stop. One motor was thrown 30 yards from the fuselage, and another motor and landing wheel 50 yards from the spot where the body of the plane came to rest.

56 Industrial Disputes Slowly Strangling New York's Economy

NEW YORK (AP)—Fifty-six industrial disputes, now subject to labor-management deliberations, are slowly strangling the economy of the United States' premier city, effecting a loss of incalculable millions of dollars.

Docks, warehouses and railroad sidings in the city—which normally does a $10,000,000 annual business in exports and imports alone—are piled high with thousands of tons of freight unmoved because of the maritime and truck strikes.

Several hundred stores of two large food chains are closed because of the trucking dispute.

The Maritime Commission says 357 U.S. ships are bottled up in New York harbor. The city's Commerce and Industry Association estimates 5,000 traders in foreign goods are unable to move shipments valued at approximately $200,000,000.

A spokesman for New York's department stores, now caught between two drivers' strikes, reports sales volumes sinking week by week. A milk shortage is attributed by dealers in part to the trucking strike.

The Association of American Railroads has two freight embargoes in effect here. One bars freight consigned to U.S. ships and the other bars freight which could not be handled by the trucking firms.

These embargoes have far-reaching economic effects, since they bar shipments which would be sent here from all parts of the United States.

A spokesman said the loss of perishable goods because of the shipping strikes amounted to millions of dollars.

Elizabeth Making 29½ Knots; Molotov Aboard With Bodyguard

ABOARD SS. QUEEN ELIZABETH EN ROUTE TO NEW YORK (CP)—The Queen Elizabeth moved westward at a steady clip under grey skies today on the second day of her maiden voyage as a civilian luxury liner.

The weather was fine and there was scarcely a roll or a pitch noticeable on the $24,000,000 vessel, just refitted at a cost of $5,000,000.

Foreign Minister Molotov of Russia and his deputy, Andrei Vishinsky, walked during the morning on the foredeck under the eyes of a bodyguard. The guard slept outside Mr. Molotov's cabin Wednesday night. The Russians are en route to the Nov. 4 meeting of the Foreign Ministers' Council in New York.

Commodore Sir James Bisset, the ship's commander, said the liner is "working like a charm" with an average speed of 29½ knots. She would dock in New York Monday morning, weather and harbor labor conditions permitting. Otherwise, the ship might be forced to dock at Halifax, probably Sunday, Sir James said.

Wets Lead Drys

SYDNEY, N.S. (CP)—County officials reported here today that the wets had a slight lead over the drys in incomplete returns from Cape Breton County's beer plebiscite. Votes counted so far showed 1,595 county residents favored sale of beer by the glass and 1,490 opposed the plan. At present beer, bottled, is bought only at Nova Scotia liquor commission stores.

Verdict A Warning

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman said today that the Nuernberg verdicts "will stand in history as a beacon to warn international brigands of the fate that awaits them."

The President's comment was expressed in a letter to Associate Justice Robert H. Jackson accepting his resignation as chief U.S. counsel of the International Military Tribunal which tried the major Nazi war criminals.

Green, White Plates For Cars In 1947

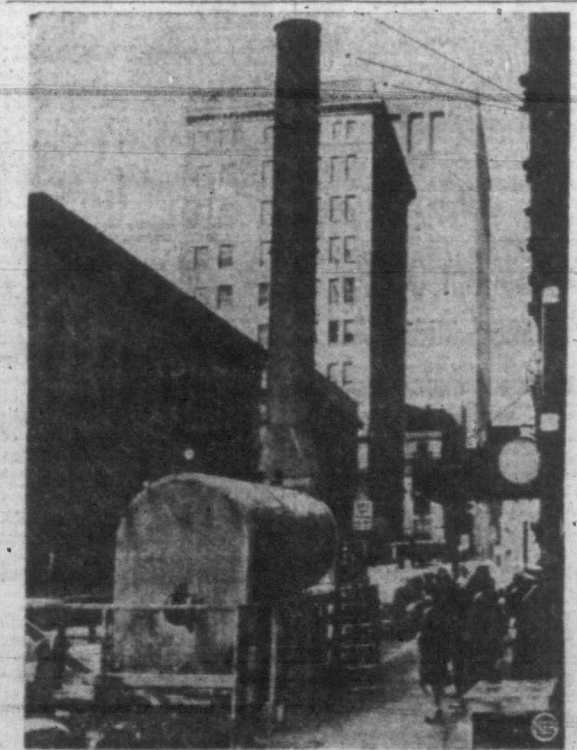

British Columbia's 150,000 motor cars, trucks and motorcycles during the 1947-48 license year which begins next March 1, will carry a single license plate on the rear with Mediterranean green figures and letters on a white background.

The plates are produced in jails of the province.

While the motor record office of the Attorney-General's office would have liked to have two plates, for the front and rear of all cars and trucks, it is believed that because of the steel strike, enough material will not be available for the two plates.

Privy Council To Discuss Canada Oct. 23

LONDON (CP) — Personnel of a Privy Council panel which will sit Oct. 23 to determine whether the council will continue as the ultimate court of appeal for Canadian judicial cases will not be announced until the hearing begins, but it will compromise seven law lords headed by Viscount Simon or Lord Jowitt, it was learned today.

Lord Chief Justice Goddard or Baron Greene, master of the rolls, also will sit. Remaining members will be drawn from among the seven lords of appeal.

The panel is not being decided until the last moment because it is not known who will be available.

The supreme judicial authority of the Empire is the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, all members of the House of Lords, before which appeals may be brought in the form of a petition to the Crown from the courts of India and every Dominion.

The Oct. 23 hearing concerns a new bill introduced in Canada which, if passed, would dispense with the Privy Council as the ultimate court of appeal as far as Canada is concerned.

Jewelry Belonging To Windsor's Stolen From Dudley Castle

LONDON (CP) — Surrey police announced today that burglars Wednesday night broke into the country home of the Earl of Dudley at Sunningdale, Surrey, and stole a "considerable amount of jewelry" belonging to the Duke and Duchess of Windsor.

The two are guests of the Earl during their visit to England.

Police disclosed no details of the robbery and the Duke himself had little to say.

"The Duchess and I are victims of this robbery," he told reporters. "The case is entirely in the hands of the police and I have, therefore, no statement to make."

Scotland Yard detectives were summoned to Sunningdale and spent the early morning hours searching for clues. The Duke, wearing a light grey suit and a red and black muffler, was observed walking about the grounds with the officers and peering up at a permanent fire escape leading to an open second-story window.

The Press Association said the Duchess of Windsor owns jewels estimated to be worth £250,000 ($1,000,000), but there was no estimate of the exact amount stolen.

Vancouver Students Admit Drinking As Probe Conducted

VANCOUVER (CP) — Police here are conducting a "silent" investigation of reports of wild, week-end drinking parties held by high school students, but pupils in two schools — the Kitsilano and Lord Byng — are loud in protest.

Police have refused comment, except to say "the matter is being fully investigated," but student groups in the two schools have described the reports as "exaggerated."

"Unfair blame is being put on the two schools," said a student leader at Kitsilano High. He admitted some of the stories could not be denied, but said students in other schools did a certain amount of drinking, too.

"We feel the fault lies with some parents," he said. "We have had no drinking at student functions."

The stories published here told of school-age boys purchasing liquor at "bargain rates" from bootleggers, and of staging week-end parties while parents were absent from home.

The student cabinet of the Fairview Baptist Church School has sent a letter to Mayor J. W. Cornett and members of the City Council asking "assurance that everything is being done to bring to justice those who are degrading and demoralizing the youth of our city."

B.C. 2nd So Far In Savings Bonds Sales

OTTAWA (CP) — Returns for the opening day of sales of Canada Savings Bonds showed a country-wide total of $11,307,100, national sales headquarters reported here today. There is no specific objective in the current campaign.

Majority of sales so far reported were exclusive of purchases under the payroll plan, which will be reported later, and come from sales agencies close to the main population centres. Many outlying points have yet to be heard from.

On the basis of available figures, Ontario shows the greatest first-day total with $4,777,250, followed by British Columbia with $1,943,450, Alberta with $1,374,400, Manitoba with $1,153,250 and Quebec with $976,650. Saskatchewan reports $453,350.

Victoria West Pre-Primary Officially Opened

The tots stretch out for a needed 10-minute rest period in the middle of the afternoon.

School is fun for the group of four and five-year-olds who are being gradually introduced to school discipline and routine via the pre-primary route at Victoria West pre-primary, which was officially opened Wednesday afternoon.

In a bright, sunny room decorated with pictures and green linoleum on the floor the children play happily for two hours each day, working with blocks, water colors, scissors and paper.

Everything is scaled down to the size of the under-six-year-olds, including cloak-room hooks and shelves, smoothly varnished tables and chairs.

The children wear soft bedroom slippers in the classroom, partly to protect the floor from muddy shoes and partly to cut down on the noise which might disturb other classrooms in session.

Miss Muriel Anderson is the teacher in charge at Victoria West and she helps the children with such tasks as taking the caps off their milk bottles without spattering, mopping up procedures when it does, and getting in and out of hard to button coats and jackets.

Every afternoon the children have half a pint of milk, which they get for $1 a month, paid by the parents. Following their milk, they spread out an assortment of blankets and mats on the floor and have a 10-minute rest period. When materials are available, Miss Anderson said, proper rest mats will be bought for the classroom. These are stored under benches, in small chests, and each child gets his or her own mat, spreads it out and puts it away again.

Miss Isla Tuck of the Greater Victoria School Board, officially declared the pre-primary open, and told of plans for the extension of pre-primary work in the area.

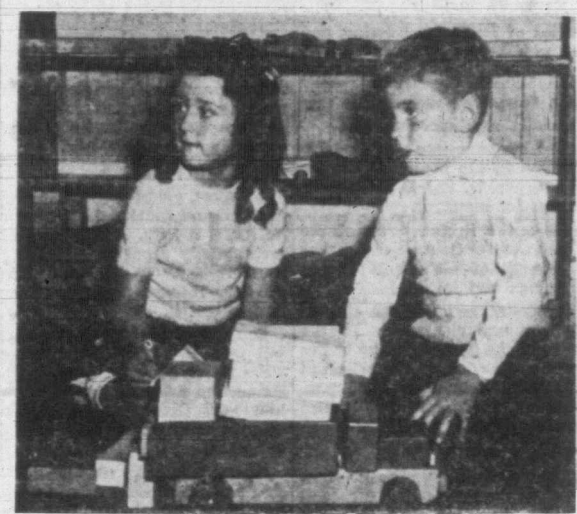

Miss Marion James, primary supervisor, also spoke briefly, explaining the work of the pre-primary classes.

Mrs. Austin Curtis and Mrs. R. Kipling poured at the tea held following the brief opening ceremony and which was attended by the parents.

Ald. F. G. Mulliner represented the mayor. Others among the guests were Ald. J. A. Worthington, Ald. Margaret D. Christie; Trustee Mrs. H. A. Beckwith; Trustee Waldo Skillings; Mrs. Wm. Blair, president of the Victoria Parent-Teacher Council; Mrs. W. W. McGill, chairman of the pre-primary committee of the P.T.A. Council; Mrs. Doreen Radcliffe, Miss Winette Copeland and Miss Margaret Sanson, pre-primary teachers from other schools.

Teacher's helper, Sylvia Suffern hands out paper napkins before the children have their mid-afternoon milk.

Frances Chapman and Bobby Griffiths play with trucks and blocks.

Barbara McCormick and pig-tailed Margaret Noeld sip appreciatively at their milk.

workers and their families.

During the war, Miss Brierley said, settlement officials found themselves with new responsibilities. A large first aid post was established and a settlement nursery school was turned into a mortuary. In charge of the first aid post was Canadian Nursing Sister Regina Glazer of Saskatchewan, whom Miss Brierley visited on her trip across Canada.

With a population of 167,000, West Ham area, just behind the Royal Albert and Victoria Docks, just 11,207 people to Nazi bombs during the blitz.

With peace returned, conditions are still not good. There was a waiting list of 2,000 families seeking homes in the West Ham area, Miss Brierley said. Meanwhile they make their homes in rehabilitation centres.

Through the war, accommodation was kept in the settlement for Canadian servicemen and it was continually filled.

Mazeral's Appeal Rejected By Court

TORONTO (CP) — The Ontario Court of Appeal ruled in a 30-page judgment handed down today that statements Edward Mazeral made to the Royal Commission on Espionage were admissible at his trial on a charge of conspiring to communicate information to the Soviet Union.

The three members of the court — Chief Justice R. S. Robertson and Justices W. D. Roach and R. E. Laidlaw — unanimously rejected Mazeral's appeal against his conviction before Mr. Justice J. C. McRuer at Ottawa last May 22. The 31-year-old engineer from Fredericton, N.B., is serving a four-year penitentiary sentence.

M.P. Would Seize Dominion Steel Co.

TRENTON, N.S. (CP) — Angus MacInnis, C.C.F. Member of Parliament for Vancouver East, told a public meeting here Wednesday night that "since the Canadian people are going to subsidize the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation, then that company should be taken over by the government and run for the people."

"If the Liberal administration is not prepared to socialize the steel industry, then it should at least appoint a government representative on the board of directors in order that it may satisfy itself that the business is run efficiently and that the subsidies are really necessary," Mr. MacInnis said.

Wife Asks Divorce From Acquitted Husband

CHICAGO (AP) — Mrs. Doris Murray, 39, who at the trial of her husband on a charge of slaying his love rival and boyhood friend supported his claim of self-defence, has filed suit for divorce, charging cruelty.

Her husband, Donald R. Murray, 41, was acquitted last August of the murder of Lt. Col. John F. Fletcher, Canadian army veteran based at Vancouver, who had been his best friend. The shooting took place last May 27 after Murray had found his wife and Fletcher in a loop hotel room.

Mrs. Murray testified at the trial her husband shot and killed Fletcher when he attacked him with a chair.

U.S. Churches Join In Declaration

By WILLIAM MOORE
NEW YORK (AP)—Leaders of Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish faiths in the United States, in the first "declaration on economic justice" issued since the war's end, call for "an organized and democratic partnership for the general welfare rather than a competitive struggle for individual or group advantage."

"The only alternatives to this are competitive economic individualism, private monopoly or excessive governmental intervention, all of which are unacceptable under the moral law," says the eight-point statement signed by 122 church leaders. The profit motive is called "useful within reasonable limits."

Australians Ask Discussion Of Veto

VANCOUVER (CP)—The six-man Australian delegation to the United Nations' Assembly, set to meet in New York Oct. 23, arrived here Wednesday aboard the Australian National Airways Skymaster Warana. All refused to comment on the coming sessions.

However, A. S. Watt, second-in-command of the party, pointed out that "Australia has placed at least two items on the agenda—the use of the veto power and trustee matters."

Marine Engineers Reject Pay Offer

VANCOUVER (CP)—A strike in the west coast Canadian shipping industry loomed as a possibility today following a meeting of the National Association of Marine Engineers which flatly rejected the offer by shipowners of an 11 per cent pay increase and demanded recognition for their organization and the payment of overtime.

The meeting was called to discuss shipowners' so-called "procrustation" in reaching an agreement with the association as to conditions for engineer officers aboard Canadian deep-sea ships sailing from B.C. ports. An "action" committee was appointed to "be in continuous readiness to direct any necessary tactics in bringing about a negotiated agreement."

BOOST ON ATLANTIC

HALIFAX (CP)—All unlicensed seamen on Canadian ocean-going dry-cargo vessels have obtained $15 monthly wage increases as a result of a new agreement between the Shipping Federation of Canada, representing 24 Canadian shipping companies, and the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.C.L.), it was announced here Wednesday by T. G. McManus, national secretary of the C.S.U. The new agreement became effective Tuesday.

Stilwell Last Rite

CARMEL, Calif. (AP)—The ashes of Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell were scattered from the air Wednesday over the Pacific Ocean, across whose broad waters the Stilwell legend was born in Burma, China and the war-battered outposts of World War II.

At "Vinegar Joe's" wish, his ashes were committed to the air and sea over the horizon from the Cyprus-studded headlands of Carmel, the site of Llanfair, the Stilwell home.

News Of The Island B.C. Power Commission Survey Of Lake Ladore Complete Soon

A survey of the shores of Lower Campbell Lake, which will be flooded when the Ladore Falls storage dam is built, is now nearing completion, Premier John Hart said in a progress report on the British Columbia Power Commission's hydro-electric power project at Campbell River.

The survey is necessary in order to determine the area which will be affected when the lake is flooded, and which must be cleared before the dam is completed. The Premier said one of the most difficult operations in construction of the big concrete head dam at Moose Falls has been reached. This operation is the diversion of Campbell River to permit the construction of the section of the dam at the lowest point in the river bed.

The whole available supply of 10,000 sacks of cement a week is being used in the construction of the head dam.

Originally planned for completion April 1, the first stage of the power project will be delayed by shortages of materials, Premier Hart said. Generators, steel pipe and wood stave pipe supplies are behind schedule.

The delegation included representatives of the Women's Auxiliary to the I.W.A., the Labor Progressive Party and the United Mine Workers of America.

Petition On Milk To Be Circulated

NANAIMO—The City Council has granted permission to a delegation to circulate a petition among citizens Saturday asking that the provincial government assume the cost of taking over the milk subsidy of 2 cents a quart removed by the Dominion government.

The delegation included representatives of the Women's Auxiliary to the I.W.A., the Labor Progressive Party and the United Mine Workers of America.

The department informed the chamber that its proposal for the installation of post boxes at the E. & N. Railway depot, for clearance into mail coaches on the trains, was not considered necessary at present.

The department's refusal to give mail carrier service to the city was criticized by some members. It was stated that the post office department would not supply mail carrier service until assured of service to 2,000 and a yearly revenue in the post office of $40,000, and that although the revenue was now greater than required, less than 2,000 services were assured.

A resolution from the Port Alberni City Council asking for better transportation facilities between the island and the mainland was endorsed.

It was decided to ask the B.C. Power Commission to make a survey of the power needs of the district.

The chamber reversed a previous vote, and endorsed a Knights of Pythias resolution asking for abolition of the means test for old-age pensioners. A rider was added to the resolution, however, asking the government to incorporate a contributory clause in the regulations, raise the pension to $50, and reduce the age of eligibility from 70 to 65 for men and 60 for women.

Gymkhana Success

DUNCAN—The gymkhana held under the auspices of the Cowichan District Riding Club in the agricultural grounds, Duncan, proved a success and the money will be donated to the S.P.C.A. Pete Bludoff gained the highest aggregate points in the senior division and Sylvia King in the junior division, with Stewart Fall as runner-up. In the jumping class Mrs. Daphne Barnes was winner.

Capt. D. Groves was the judge and Mrs. E. Springett ring steward.

Mrs. Dick Sentenced To Be Hanged For Slaying Of Husband

HAMILTON (CP)—Mrs. Evelyn MacLean Dick, 26 only last Sunday, was sentenced Wednesday night to be hanged Jan. 7 for the torso slaying of her husband, John Dick, last March 6.

She took the sentence with no display of emotion, standing alone and firmly in her place by the prisoners' box before Mr. Justice F. H. Barlow of the Ontario Supreme Court.

Her only words were: "I want to appeal my case."

"Your appeal will be handed on to the proper authorities," said the judge.

And then the woman, as calm and self-possessed as at any time during her nine-day trial, left the courtroom.

The verdict came at 5:53 p.m., 1 hour and 52 minutes after the jury had retired with the 109 exhibits and the masses of testimony.

The jury included one negro, a blacksmith, a printer and an electrical appliance man.

Selection of a new jury began today for the trial of Mrs. Dick's father, Donald MacLean and William Bohozuk, her former friend, charged with the same murder.

HAPPY SOLUTION

ON SEPT. 21, 1945, THE DAY AFTER Victoria College opened its doors for its first full term following hostilities, we drew attention to the inadequacy of the building in these terms:

"When more than 400 students stood in the cold outside old Craigdarroch last year morning because there was insufficient space inside the building in which to welcome them, any further argument in favor of new quarters for Victoria College became superfluous."

The opening exercises at that time, a year ago, served to underscore the point previously made here that a change of home was urgently necessary in order to maintain the standards of the institution and protect the welfare of the swollen student body.
Since then it has been our firm belief that the existing building at Mount Tolmie should be used jointly by College and Normal School for the important training those two educational centres provide.

Our gratification over the decision to follow that course, announced yesterday by Premier John Hart, will be readily understood. It is a sentiment we share with all in the community interested in educational affairs, a satisfaction springing not so much from the achievement of the policy we have championed as from a recognition that the Premier, his cabinet, the members for Victoria and the Department of Education have been successful in solving a problem that threatened the future of many of our brighter sons and daughters.

It will require another month before facilities can be completed to handle the College at Mount Tolmie. Even then conditions may not be absolutely ideal. But they will be so far improved over the situation existing at Craigdarroch that minor disabilities should go unnoticed. Moreover, as the College population shrinks with the eventual completion of courses by veterans, the accommodation should be adequate for the ordinary demands of years to come.
And the co-operative association of the two departments of education within the same building bids fair to facilitate co-ordination of courses when amendments contemplated to that end become more practicable.

NEW SETTLERS

DURING THE WAR THE OPINION WAS frequently expressed that service personnel posted to this area in the course of their duties would return as settlers when hostilities ceased. Veterans' officials announced yesterday the approximate number who had taken up residence since May of last year. It showed a proportion of nine established here for every seven who enlisted in this city. The total, moreover, is considered a conservative estimate.

Two points are specifically worthy of note in the condition disclosed. Greater Victoria is fortunate to have attracted newcomers whose merit has been proved by their service to their country, and this community can expect to continue its growth as long as its amenities are shown to visitors. These are not haphazard settlers.
They have inspected the ground and have decided that this is the place in which they wish to make their homes. They have come voluntarily, have put up with the inconveniences arising from congested living accommodation and construction difficulties, and the tests to which they are being subjected by these conditions should provide a satisfactory gauge of their citizenship values.

TWO BY-ELECTIONS

NEXT MONDAY IN THE FEDERAL constituencies of Parkdale in Toronto and Portage la Prairie in Manitoba the electors will go to the polls to fill two vacancies in the House of Commons. The former is traditionally Conservative and the latter, since the end of the First Great War, has been predominantly Liberal. Parkdale became vacant on the resignation of Dr.
H. A. Bruce, and the death of Mr. Harry Leader last May caused the contest in Rt.
Hon. Arthur Meighen's old constituency.

In the Toronto fight Col. Hunter, a young veteran of the recent conflict, is carrying the Liberal banner, and Alderman Timmins is flying the colors of the Progressive Conservative Party. Mr. Jaffray Wood, a farmer, who for years has been a leader in farmer organizations, is advocating another endorsement of the Mackenzie King regime in Portage, while the cause of the former Premier of Manitoba is in the hands of Mr. C. C. Miller, K.C., whom the chief opposition party considers it has an excellent chance of electing. Farmer Sydney Coulthard is nursing similar ideas in behalf of the C.C.F. Party.

Since the issue in Parkdale is obviously one between the Liberal concept of national administration and what the followers of Mr. Bracken think should be done about it, it is not surprising that a house-to-house canvass by Progressive Conservative campaigners is actively concentrated on the government's alleged ineptitude in general.
The adherents of the gospel according to the C.C.F. are making much of the abolition of the milk subsidy—trying, no doubt, to persuade the electorate that this form of taxation is not a tax on the ordinary people but a payment out of the national till which is released by some mystic wand of which the public knows nothing.

As far as Portage la Prairie is concerned, Liberal prognosticators admit that both opposition contenders have a chance against government standard-bearer Wood. In this riding, however, the Brackenites are assailing the price control policy of the administration—with their horse, artillery and foot ranged against the wheat and other farm products agreements with Great Britain—and there may be much to commend some of their arguments in the light of the agenda for the international trade conference scheduled to take place next year under the auspices of the United Nations. But the record of the leader of the opposition in the first full session after the general election of 1945 is scarcely likely to impress either the electors of Parkdale or Portage la Prairie. As we have said in these columns many times, however, it is never safe to bet on the weather, horse races, or political contests.

PREMIER SMUTS' QUERY

STUDENTS OF INTERNATIONAL AFfairs will have noted Prime Minister Jan Christiaan Smuts' advocacy of British leadership in a move to create a United States of Europe. They will have seen the logic of his remarks that the British Commonwealth provides a pattern for intra-state cooperation. But they will probably be more impressed by the words he devoted to the gravitation of Slav peoples into their own bloc. Said the distinguished South African on that point:

"In eastern Europe a Slav general group is already forming under our eyes. And why not? Why should this be resented or feared as a menace to others? Is it not wiser and safer to regularize these groupings which correspond to deep-seated national and economic interests? I do believe that the United Nations needs such buttresses to its overall world structure."

The remarks of Field-Marshal Smuts inject an unusual note of reason into an atmosphere made cloudy by a subconscious international attitude to consider realignment of countries in the light of the possibility of a Third World War. His suggestion carries the implication that big power leaders have spoken honestly when they have discounted that eventually. If the universal will is to peace, is there a menace to others in these alliances between racial and national groups with common heritages, similar traditions and analogous economic systems?

Only the events of the future can justify or repudiate Prime Minister Smuts' expression of faith. But when a man of his stature takes an objective view of conditions and refuses to discriminate against groups of peoples because they are moving toward greater unity within an orbit differing from that of the western democracies, his words command attention. This veteran of peace parleys following two world wars apparently declines to accept the position that all who are not for the western democratic system are against it. It will be remembered, too, that the field marshal was the chief draftsman of the preamble to the United Nations Charter which sets out as one objective:

"To reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and value of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small."

VINEGAR

IN A TWO-PAGE LETTER, CIRCULATED privately, the Verner Publications, Ottawa, unsheath editorial claws in an effort to shred the Mackenzie King administration.
In the face of the expressed will of the people demonstrated a little more than a year ago, it charges minority rule and minority action with clutching Canada in a firm hold. This, be it noted, without reference to any reform in the electoral system which might guarantee parliamentary representation on a more secure basis of majority opinion. It then proceeds with airy generalities which it seeks neither to support by logic nor buttress by fact. Among these abstracts it comes up with this:

"To talk today of the dangers of inflation seems redundant. In the face of a potential breakdown in the economic, the political and the social structure, a mere inflation spiral, be it ever so severe, would be but a symptom of a malignant disease that has driven its roots deep."

Included in its scant compass, the letter pictures "a septuagenarian Prime Minister, tired from his parliamentary labors, his travels and his political troubles," brooding amid the autumn glories of the Gatineau Hills. And possibly because of the unimportance it attaches to a "mere inflation spiral," it condemns the government for refusal to lift the price and wage controls or "to deflate the currency to match the hypodermic injections resorted to in wartime."

There seems very little that is right with Canada—despite its current appearance of health and prosperity—on the basis of the Verner letter, which its editor calls a "striking challenge" to the government. No doubt the public, or the readers touched by its private circulation, will place a baseball interpretation on that adjective, "striking," yes—a lot of foul balls and a batter who fans at the plate.

Strange people! They summer in the mountains to keep cool; then leave when the air turns to wine and the trees put on a glory that would brighten Paradise.

MR. TRUMAN'S PRESS CONFERENCE

MR. TRUMAN has been seeking advice on how to protect himself against the snares and snarls of his office. He needs it.
His unpretentiousness has protected him from the consequences of blunders, which would have shaken to its foundations the administration of a stronger President. But he cannot draw too lavishly upon the fund of good will and good nature, of charity and chivalry, which the press and the informed public have, in altogether exceptional degree, felt that they must for compassionate and patriotic reasons accord him.

The public interest also demands protection. It needs to be protected against recurring blunders like the Wallace imbroglio, the entanglement with Mr. Churchill's speech at Fulton, the Crowley affair terminating British lend-lease, and the Tiptonville remarks about the atomic bomb. Mistakes like these are too expensive, and they are wholly unnecessary.

THEY ARE DUE to one very simple but fundamental misconception: Mr. Truman has not realized that the Presidency is not a man in the White House. The Presidency is an institution, a department of government, the central organ of government. No man, however big, can administer the office of President as the personal enterprise of himself and his cronies. The less he is a big man, the less he can rely upon hunches and chit-chat: the more he must fall back upon the organized decision of a staff and his responsible advisers.

Since Mr. Truman's troubles have developed out of his press conferences, it is but natural that he should be hoping to cure his troubles by reforming his press conferences.
There is little doubt that he ought to reform them. As now conducted they are unsatisfactory as they are dangerous. The President is frequently asked questions which he is unprepared to answer. He may catch the point of the question. Or he may miss the point. He can then give no answer. Or he can make a quick guess. Or he can give the wrong answer. This system is bound to produce the results it so frequently does produce: not information and understanding but confusion and consternation throughout the world.

YET THE REMEDY is clearly indicated.

On the one hand the public must know what the government is doing, and the press must be enabled to report it. On the other hand the President cannot supply that information offhand "in answer to questions tossed at him unexpectedly out of a crowd of newspapermen, especially when there will always be some more interested in heckling him than in reporting him. The remedy is to make it a rule that on matters of high policy, touching on foreign affairs, the armed forces, government finance, questions should be submitted in writing, and answered when the President has had time to have prepared a considered reply.

THERE MAY BE some who will say that Mr. Truman cannot do this without confessing that he is less able to cope with the press than was President Roosevelt. But in fact he is less able, and it will cost him less grief to admit it than to deny it. Moreover, as one newspaperman who has been to Presidential press conferences over a period of 30 years, I should like to say that even if Mr.
Truman could imitate Roosevelt, he ought not to try.

Roosevelt's conduct of press conferences became, as time went on, more a form of personal recreation than a means of public education. As he got his exercise in the swimming pool, so he exercised his wits in his press conferences. Less and less came out of them which gave substance to the freedom of the press. More and more they had degenerated into persiflage by means of which the President, who was nearly always the victor, would win for himself a few more days of freedom from the inquisitiveness of the press.

THE NOTION seems to exist that the fine flower of a free press can be enjoyed only in these catch-as-catch-can interviews, with their uninforming and uninforming answers to unprepared and unconsidered questions—and even that there is a small of censorship and unfreedom and regimentation in a system of carefully prepared questions answered when the President is able to answer them. But why? Because, I suppose, the delayed answer, though on the whole it would more certainly disclose the facts on the question at issue, would be ghost-written and would, therefore, conceal from the public the quality of the man who is President.

That is the only real objection I can think of. It can be met. Questions of high policy that concern the security and vital interests of the nation could be given prepared answers after due notice. There would remain the whole field of domestic politics and internal policy in which could be exercised that special freedom, unique among the democracies but well worth its cost, of compelling public men to appear as they are when they are unprotected and naked.

GLOBAL SURVEY

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.

Some months ago, in spite of all the fanfare and the diplomatic "victories" of the western powers, the Iranian province of Azerbaijan was detached from control of the central government at Tehran and moved into the Russian sphere.

Now a comparable process is at work in Greece, with some differences. No "autonomous" regime has been set up behind a shield of foreign military occupation. The Greek government has an army, and British military support has not been withdrawn as it had been from Iran.

Just assuming that the rebels, guerrillas, communists, patriots or whatever you wish to call them—depending upon whose propaganda you accept—are being financed and armed through Russian-satellite Yugoslavia and Russian-armed Bulgaria, as the government charges, and assuming that they should gain control of northern Greece as the pro-Russian Iranians did of Azerbaijan, would that be aggression? Or would there be merely an accomplished fact, with northern Epirus, Thrace and Macedonia moving into autonomous conjunction with Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria in much the same way that Mongolia moved from the Chinese into the Russian sphere?

It is quite probable that no answer will be provided on these points. The British government can be expected to see to it that

Iris Pembroke Wed In Vancouver

In Vancouver, on Oct. 10, Iris Gertrude Pembroke, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pembroke, 646 Simcoe Street, became the bride of Glenn Albert Tweedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Tweedy, Osoyoos, B.C.

Rev. Harrison Villet performed the service at Canadian Memorial Church, decorated for the occasion with white chrysanthemums.

The bride's full-length veil, held by a coronet of orange blossoms, misted over a Tudor-style gown of white satin. She wore a double strand of pearls, the groom's gift, and her bouquet was of American Beauty roses and gardenias. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Connie Butler, gowned in pink taffeta and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations and white asters, attended the bride. Groomsman was W. Morlock, and ushering, Donald Porteous.

Andrew Manson of Vancouver sang "The Bells of Saint Mary" during the signing of the register.

A reception was held, following the service, at Harmony Hall. Harold Beckwith of Victoria, a close friend of the bride's family, proposed the toast.

Mr. and Mrs. Tweedy left for a honeymoon motor trip to the interior of British Columbia, and on their return will make their home in Osoyoos, B.C. For traveling, the bride wore a black and white suit, topped with grey fur-trimmed coat and green accessories.

Lattice presided and final plans were made for an autumn tea on Oct. 25 in the Memorial Hall. Rev. N. S. Noel will speak at 3 and a stall of miscellaneous articles will be given by Miss K. Jaffray.

Phones Guernsey—Flies To See Brother

Mrs. J. J. Moore, pictured as she met newspaper reporters, after a plane trip of more than 5,000 miles from Victoria, to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cort, La Roque Poisson, L'Eree, Guernsey Island, and a sister, Mrs. Vera Reese, in Wales.

Returning to her home in Victoria, Thanksgiving week-end, Mrs. J. J. Moore, who is nearly 70 years of age, was "physically tired but mentally exhilarated" after the thrill of a four-day air trip from Victoria to Guernsey Island, a four-month visit there and a return trip, again by air.

She made the trip to visit her brother whom she had not seen for 40 years.

"On four different occasions when I was in the Old Country before the war," she explains, "I missed seeing him. This time I was determined there would be no slips, so I telephoned him and his wife before I left here."

That was another thrill for Mrs. Moore. A telephone call from Victoria to Guernsey Island.

Mrs. Moore traveled by luxury airliner across Canada, but when it came to the Atlantic crossing she went in a Lancaster bomber.

"Not as comfortable as the airliner," she says, "but we got there just the same."

SEE ROCKIES
Seeing Canada from the air was the highlight of the whole trip, she thinks, and chuckles happily as she tells that she slipped off the respirator every plane passenger must wear at very high altitudes, in order to really see "the gorgeous snow-covered Rockies."

U.B.C. Students Exchange Nuptials

A Vancouver wedding of interest here took place Oct. 11 at St. Andrew's Wesley Chapel when Rev. O. W. S. McCall united in marriage Miss Doris Patricia Stainsby, daughter of Mrs. Stainsby, West Vancouver, and the late Dr. Fred Stainsby, and Hans Braathen, son of E. H. Braathen, Prince George, and the late Mrs. Sigrid Braathen.

Miss Gwyneth MacAffee and Miss Mary Trevor were bridesmaids. Groomsman was Dawson Elliott and ushering were Roy Cuthbert and Gordon Thompson.

A reception was held at the Vancouver Hotel, following the ceremony. The bride served with R.C.A.F. (W.D.) in eastern Canada and the groom was a navigating officer with the R.C.A.F. overseas. Both are continuing their studies at University of B.C.

Hold Annual Ball

United Services Institution of Vancouver Island will hold their annual ball, the first since the beginning of the war, at the Sirocco Ballroom, Oct. 24, from 9 to 1. All active, reserve and retired officers will wear uniforms for the occasion. Col. J. N. Gibson, honorary secretary-treasurer, 605 Courtney Street, is in charge of arrangements.

Dr. Hirschmanova On Tour Again

OTTAWA (CP).—The tiny woman with the fierce light of the crusader burning in her eyes turned from the window of her small office high in a downtown building. "If I only could bring back $100,000," she said.

Today Dr. Lotta Hirschmanova, executive director of the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada, was on her way to Vancouver where Sunday she will open a three-month speaking tour to take her throughout the four western provinces where, for the most part under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club she will appeal to Canadians to contribute to the U.S.C.C.'s drive for funds to continue its relief work throughout war-ridden Czechoslovakia and France.

Significant enough that Europeans need our assistance now more than ever before is the fact the committee's present quota of $100,000 is double that for its last drive several months ago, Dr. Hirschmanova said.

The United Nations Rehabilitation and Relief Association will go out of existence the end of this year and other welfare organizations already have disbanded, which means the Unitarian Service Committee will be one of the few left to carry on the work of saving the lives of starving Europeans.

Young Musicians Hold First Meetings Of Year

Intermediate and junior groups of Victoria Musical Arts Society held their first meetings of the season at the Victoria Truth Centre.

The intermediates heard a program arranged by Misses Elizabeth Harding and Madeline Collett, including Mrs. Sidney Roberts, elocutionist; Mrs. W. H. Wilson, soprano, and Miss Roberta Patterson, mezzo-soprano, as guest artists. The following members also too part: Marilyn Bacon, Pearl Scott, Alana Bertelsen, Muriel and Vivian Trimble, Terry Shaw, Edith and Bobbie McGill and Joan Milloy.

Mrs. C. Conyers, Misses E. M. Hick, D. Francis and Pear Scott acted as accompanists. The senior adviser, Mrs. J. I. Smith, introduced the new president, Miss Pamela Terry.

Miss Jean Roberts presided at the junior group meeting and addresses were given by Mrs. R. E. Collier, who introduced Mrs. P. J. Sinnott, and Mrs. W. Ellis who introduced Mrs. P. E. Corby, the new president of the Senior Musical Arts Society.

The guest artist was Miss Lorraine Cornish and members taking part in the program were Larry Landy, Earl Smith, Roy Byfield, Beverly Sanderson, Jacqueline Quest, Ann Robertson, Roslyn Rogers, Billy Abbott, Gerald Rowlandson and Joy Davis.

Canadians Want Modern Facilities In New Homes

Canadians are still conservative as far as homes are concerned, according to G. A. Okell, former city assessor and collector, who was guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Real Estate Board Wednesday.

He said a recent survey revealed that both the Canadian and American public did not care for ultra-modern homes but preferred dwellings built prior to 1941. They expected, however, some improvements in design and construction, economies in heating and kitchen equipment in postwar buildings.

Mr. Okell also said it was generally believed that two or three family houses would become fewer and people would eventually prefer to live in multi-family apartment buildings.

"Building costs have risen sharply since 1939 and are now approximately 35 per cent above the 1939 level," he said.

Speaking of the difficulties of appraising a house, Mr. Okell said it was not possible to assign a value to an individual house or building, except in considering the neighborhood or district in which it exists.

Stating that lack of rear alley lanes were partly responsible for the traffic congestion of some streets in Victoria, Mr. Okell said the value of a property was enhanced if it possessed an alley.

Mr. Okell said he had recommended to the city that all appraisers should be university graduates. He said an attempt was being made to have the University of British Columbia give courses in appraisals. The University of Manitoba was the only college now giving such a course.

Col. Brooke Stephenson presided. H. W. Davey, K.C., was appointed board solicitor.

It was also announced that Rental Controller, Lobley, may address the club during a visit to Victoria this month.

Hallowe'en Parties Planned For Schools

Plans are underway for the annual Hallowe'en parties to be held in all the city schools with the exception of Victoria High School, Ald. D. D. McTavish, chairman of the parks committee, said today.

The parks committee has sent each school a cheque, on the basis of 10 cents per pupil to aid in the costs of putting on the parties which are designed to keep the children off the streets and prevent possible vandalism on Hallowe'en night.

The plan has been in effect for 10 years and the parks committee members are satisfied that it cuts down materially on property damage in the city.

There are no organized school parties in Saanich for Hallowe'en, John Gough, municipal school inspector, said. It is anticipated that Oak Bay and Esquimalt schools will follow their usual activities for Hallowe'en.

Would Ban Arrows

HALIFAX (CP)—Rev. Harold T. Roe, manager and field secretary of the Nova Scotia Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, issued an appeal Wednesday to sportsmen entering the province's forests to refrain from using bows and arrows in hunting deer. It is permissible under the provincial hunting laws as long as the hunter has a license for big game.

WORLD'S largest-selling brand of evaporated milk! Canada's largest! There are many brands of evaporated milk—but of them all, more homemakers and mothers consistently buy Carnation than any other brand. That's a great tribute to a great product!

Of course it isn't an accident. It is the result of a long record of dependable quality, carefully maintained... of doctors finding Carnation a fine food for bottle-fed babies; of mothers seeing children thrive on Carnation as a drinking milk; of whole families enjoying milk-rich dishes made with Carnation. For drinking or eating or "creaming"—you'll find that Carnation will become your favorite milk.

Workers Of C.P.R. Expect Wage Boost

OTTAWA (CP)—Wage increases of 10 cents an hour to employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway are expected to be announced by the National War Labor Board within a few days.

The award is likely to follow that recently granted Canadian National Railway employees who, with the exception of maintenance-of-way workers and members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen—received a straight 10-cent advance. The maintenance-of-way men had previously received a two-cent increase and in the later award were given eight cents. Negotiations still are continuing with the trainmen.

More Stevedores Needed At Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Shipping officials announced today that a shortage of stevedoring crews along the waterfront is delaying the sailing of many of the 22 deep-sea ships currently in port. St. Leavenworth, loading lumber for England, has been delayed more than 24 hours, being unable to work a night loading shift.

Most vessels are able to work only one loading crew a day, due to the shortage.

Provinces Face Control Of Revenues Says Senator McGeer

VANCOUVER (CP)—Senator G. G. McGeer said in a radio address Wednesday night that the provinces are "face to face" with federal control of their revenues.

Speaking over station CKWX, he said there was a danger to Canadian federation in Parliament's ability to amend the constitution by resolution, and charged the federal government was "ignoring" the fact that revenues of the provinces were "inadequate" to deal with local needs or with "16 years of deferred maintenance and expansion."

"The federal government seems to be either unconscious or indifferent that similar demands have been made on provincial and local governments," he said.

Canada was the only country in the Commonwealth in which a party majority in the House could amend the constitution.

"Our Canadian Parliament can abolish the use of French or English in Parliament, or can wipe out the powers of the provincial legislatures."

"Spokesmen for the government may say the power to amend the constitution may never be used, but history teaches that power once secured will be used."

Drew Says King Killing Hope Of Resuming Parley

TORONTO (CP)—Premier Drew of Ontario said Wednesday night that Prime Minister King had "closed the door of any further consideration of requests for an early resumption of the Dominion-Provincial Conference."

Mr. Drew released an exchange of correspondence with the Prime Minister and said he had told the Prime Minister in a letter Wednesday:

"It is apparent that not only are you preventing the possibility of such an agreement now, but that you are determined to follow a course which will still further prejudice the ultimate possibility of reaching any satisfactory agreement on Dominion-Provincial relations."

"My colleagues in the Ontario government have carefully considered the statements in your letters and we can only conclude that your effort to force individual agreements upon all the provincial governments in violation of the very principles which you have yourself asserted in the past, is part of a settled design to substitute for a modern and overhauled federal system—such as we have urged—a form of decentralized authority which still carries the name of confederation but is in truth de facto unitary government at Ottawa. This you are seeking to do by economic pressure."

The exchange of correspondence started Sept. 7 when Premier Drew in a letter to Prime Minister King asked that the adjourned Dominion-Provincial Conference be reconvened at the earliest possible date.

Duplessis Charges Federal Tendency To Centralization

MONTREAL (CP)—All federal governments have always had tendencies toward centralization with the idea of seizing the rights of the provinces, Premier Maurice Duplessis Wednesday night told more than 1,000 guests attending a banquet on the occasion of his second year in power as the head of the Union Nationale government.

He warned that if exponents of centralization had their way, provincial rights would disappear. Confederation would end and there would be no national unity within the country.

The premier was willing to return to Ottawa for the resumption of the Dominion-Provincial Conference, but "I am not running after invitations, it is not dignified."

Speaking on the same night that Premier George Drew of Ontario charged Prime Minister King with breaking faith with the provinces, Mr. Duplessis was loudly cheered when he said: "When they ask me to sell my province, my race, my brothers, the answer is 'never'."

Mr. Duplessis and his ministers had gone to the Dominion-Provincial Conference as premier and ministers of a province, not as party men, he said.

There had been a lack of co-operation and continual provocations. The federal government members, he said, had not shown a spirit of collaboration and logic needed to be shown by men seeking co-operation.

Although there were centralizers in both good and bad faith, all were "illogical and unjust." The premier charged there was an "evident desire" at the conference to reduce the provinces' power and make them tenants in their own home.

The Union Nationale leader added:

"A conference between the Dominion and the provinces is not a game where one seeks to get the better of the other, where one political party seeks to outsmart the other, but it is, or should be, a meeting where all work for Canada. Collaboration is not a one-way street. I am willing to collaborate but not to be an accomplice. Complicity means selling my province and I was not given a mandate to sell my brothers."

B. J. Sead, member of Local 1-118 of the International Woodworkers of America, has received the endorsement of the Victoria Labor Council as a candidate for alderman.

At a meeting this week a committee composed of J. Maher, R. Mezger and T. A. Mitchell was elected to lead the aldermanic campaign on behalf of Mr. Sead. This committee will work in co-operation with delegates from other trade unions.

"I have been a member of the Few Canadians Would Want To Live In Any Other Age

By Canadian Institute of Public Opinion

TORONTO — You may talk about the good old days—the days of Merrie England, the age of Chivalry, the Gay Nineties and so on—but if you had a choice of times in which to live, the odds are that you would pick the present day—if you are a Canadian.

Some social scientists claim that there is a dangerous amount of "escapism" in the world today: that present conditions are so tangled and gloomy, that people are seeking to dodge the issue by plunging mentally into the past. As one way of putting a yardstick to escapism in Canada, the Institute of Public Opinion gave a typical sample of Canadians from all walks of life, and from all parts of the Dominion, a choice, by asking these questions:

"If you could choose, which one of these periods of history would you prefer to live in?"

They were then handed a card, on which these choices were printed:

Elizabethan (Shakespeare; Raleigh); Time of Christ; Middle Ages (Age of Chivalry); the Present; Gay Nineties; 100 Years from Now; Early 19th Century (Napoleon; Wellington; Nelson).

The words in brackets were added to give the average person a peg on which to classify the period.

100 YEARS FROM NOW OUT
A clear majority voted for the present day, with "100 years from now" coming a poor second:

Would prefer to live: In the present 57 per cent; 100 years from now 13 per cent; Gay Nineties 12 per cent; Time of Christ 3 per cent; Middle Ages 3 per cent; Early 19th Century 2 per cent; Elizabethan 1 per cent.

Others 1 per cent; can't choose 8 per cent.

Those people who selected some period, were asked:

"Why do you pick this period?"

Those who picked the present day, said, in the main, they were "just plain satisfied" with the present age. Others were more specific, and termed it the age of progress, or an age in which living was vastly easier than in the past. By the same token, it was the new inventions, leading towards easier living, which were uppermost in the minds of the 13 per cent who would prefer to live 100 years from now.

Younger Canadians (those between the ages of 21 and 29 years) showed up in the poll as being much more content with the present age than those over 50 years. The "oldsters" went heavily for the gay nineties.

World Co-operation Or Chaos Seen By Sir A. Clutterbuck

International co-operation, patience and the shunning of cynicism are alternatives to world chaos, Sir Alexander Clutterbuck, British High Commissioner to Canada, said Wednesday in a luncheon address to the Canadian Club at the Empress Hotel.

"We live in a difficult although interesting time, in some respects a critical time," Sir Alexander said, "for the world is going forward to a new age. We are all being swept along in the momentous advance of science."

"To meet the perils of this time we shall have to have cool heads and clear thinking."

In Britain, the High Commissioner declared, the problem was being approached in a realistic way. He held that too much lip-service had been paid in the past by all countries to international co-operation.

"We are caught on a flowing tide toward federalization or coalescing of the world, which will not be denied, and has to come about by peaceful means or by war," he said. "We must face the possibility that unless we can make more progress toward world co-operation we shall end in chaos."

"We must have patience, and avoid cynicism at all costs," Sir Alexander added. "To say 'nothing has ever come out of this' is to make sure nothing ever will come out of it."

Reviewing Britain's problems and its postwar progress, Sir Alexander told the club that after Dunkerque there had been bred in the British a determination "that come what may, we would carry forward the family feeling, to build up together as a team a new Britain in which everyone would be assured a happier and a fuller life."

The problems facing in converting that determination into action, Sir Alexander said, included getting 6,000,000 servicemen and women back into industrial employment; reconvert industry, which he likened to unscrambling an egg, and rebuilding the export trade, 70 per cent of which had been deliberately sacrificed; replacing the 4,000,000 houses damaged or destroyed during the war, and making up for the lack of construction in the war years, and obtaining food. Stricter rationing of food in peacetime than in war, because of the necessity of feeding Europe "seemed rather odd at first to the people at home," Sir Alexander said, "but they soon tumbled to it."

Britain planned to tackle the various problems that gave the nation trouble before the war, Sir Alexander said. The concept had now won that the strength of a country lay in its human resources, and the government was seeking to produce economic stability.

Social services being provided in Britain, Sir Alexander told the club, included more and better education, a vast new health service, and a great insurance scheme to put a floor on a man's standard of living.

EXPORT TRADE GROWS

The aims of the British government could not be attained, Sir Alexander said, unless the nation was brought back quickly to an even keel.

"We have been doing everything we can to throw all our resources into our export trade," he said. "During the war it was 30 per cent as great as before the war. Today it is 120 per cent as great. Our exports are now just under $100,000,000 a month."

However, he said, Britain needed an export trade 150 per cent as great as the prewar trade to obtain the necessities of life, and a still greater trade to get some of the frills that every Briton wanted. He predicted that the figure of 150 per cent would be reached next year.

The luncheon meeting was attended by Lieutenant-Governor Charles A. Banks, honorary president of the Canadian Club. Eric Pepler presided.

Paris Conference 'Made Progress' Toward European Peace—Byrnes

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Secretary Byrnes arrived home from the Paris Peace Conference today and declared the 21-power conclave had "made progress" towards establishing organized peace in Europe.

It certainly cannot be called a "failure," Mr. Byrnes told newspapermen at the National Airport as he stepped off President Truman's personal plane which had brought him across the Atlantic.

Mr. Byrnes was scheduled to confer with the President later today. This get-together will be the first personal meeting of Mr. Byrnes and Mr. Truman since Henry A. Wallace criticized Mr. Byrnes' policies toward Russia and then was ousted from the cabinet.

Tomorrow night Mr. Byrnes will make a radio address. His speech is expected to deal with the whole range of critical issues involved in United States-Russian relations. On top of clear indications these issues generally were intensified rather than solved by the Paris meeting, the State Department disclosed a new development.

CZECH CREDIT CANCELED

Officials said the United States had canceled a $40,000,000 surplus property credit to Czechoslovakia and in addition had suspended indefinitely a pending $50,000,000 rehabilitation loan to the Czechs by the Export-Import Bank.

The primary reason behind this $90,000,000 slap at one of the countries in the Russian bloc was said to be the Czech backing of Soviet charges at Paris that the United States is resorting to "dollar diplomacy" in eastern Europe in an effort to advance "American imperialism."

The United States also objected to other factors: (1) A Czech deal to resell $10,000,000 worth of surplus property to Romania at a profit and (2) the failure of the Czechs to agree formally to the rights of U.S. citizens with respect to property and commercial operations in that country.

Mountains Awe Dutch Bride

A pretty Dutch war bride is the latest newcomer to join the veteran community at the Balmoral Apartments on Douglas Street.

She is Mrs. Aaltje Warnock, wife of a Duncan veteran, who has just arrived in Victoria after a long journey across the sea and Dominion to join her husband. Mrs. Warnock was a passenger on the repatriation ship Lady Nelson which docked last week in Halifax with an "all continental group" representing Holland, France and Belgium servicemen's wives.

Her husband, a former member of the 1st Canadian Scottish Battalion, met her in Almelo, Holland, while serving in the occupational army. He married her on March 16 of this year.

Mr. Warnock admits that he had a rather hectic time learning the Dutch language in time for the marriage ceremony as his wife-to-be couldn't speak a word of English. But after some weeks, he says, he managed to speak so that he could be understood.

However, time was against him as far as teaching his wife English. He was repatriated to Canada just when his wife was making progress in learning her adopted language. So when his wife arrived in Victoria, both were obliged to converse in a strange dialect which sounded like a mixture of French, English and German.

Mrs. Warnock said that Canada came up to all her expectations, and she was happy in Victoria. She adds that she was surprised at the immensity of the Dominion and enjoyed the journey across the nine provinces. She was awed when she saw the Rocky Mountains.

When questioned about her sea voyage she said "nein, nein," and then addressed her husband in Dutch. His interpretation was that she never again wanted to travel by sea; she had enough of one voyage, which she found far from pleasant.

During the German occupation of Holland, Mrs. Warnock said that at Almelo they were very fortunate not to be bothered by German troops. There was just a small token force stationed in the town and on the whole the soldiers minded their own business.

Charter Air Service For Northern Region

OTTAWA (CP)—Two licenses to operate non-scheduled charter commercial air services out of Vancouver and Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, have been approved, the Air Transport Board announced today.

From a Vancouver base, Canadian Pacific Air Lines will operate a service augmenting the company's scheduled service which is already established at this base.

Under similar arrangements, the Yukon Southern Air Transport Limited will operate a non-scheduled charter service in addition to the scheduled service it now provides from Whitehorse.

In both cases, applicants are free to provide air carrier service between any point on one of their own licensed scheduled routes and any other point along the same route.

Kinsmen Make Appeal For Discarded Goods

A novel and interesting method of securing funds has been adopted by the Kinsmen Club of Victoria. An appeal is issued to every householder in Greater Victoria to check their lumber rooms and attics for articles no longer in use. Every housewife knows the way in which "junk" accumulates in storerooms. Things that are outmoded or not needed, yet are not ready for the ash can, collect dust and cobwebs in dignified disuse. It does not matter what the article is, from a sewing machine to light fixture, pastry board to chesterfield suite... anything and everything has its place in this drive. A phone call will bring a truck to the door. From the home the articles collected will be taken to a central store-room, and there they will be auctioned off at a date to be announced in the near future, which has done such splendid money so secured will be applied to the Kinsmen's Fund.

BY PETE SALLAWAY

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS won the world series and another fall baseball classic has gone into the record books but it is a safe bet the hot stove leaguers will have plenty of material to mull over during the long winter months. Already the writer has heard no little arguing over the decisions made by Manager Joe Cronin of the Boston Red Sox in that seventh and final battle. The wolves are really on the Sox pilot and some are even going so far as to forecast he will be looking for another job before next season rolls around.

It is pretty hard to understand why Cronin didn't attempt to squeeze home the all-important tying run in the ninth inning. He had purposely taken big Rudy York out of the game in favor of a Paul Campbell, a pinch-runner, to get more speed on the bags. Campbell was camped on third base and Higgins on first with only one away. The weak-striking Roy Partee was at the plate so there was every reason for Cronin to try the squeeze and, even if the runner was caught at the plate, Higgins would move up to second and be in scoring position should the following batter hit safely. Then again if Cronin was trying only for the tying run why pull York, his best power hitter out of the game if he was figuring on going into extra innings. He already had lost Dominic DiMaggio, one of the club's best hitters in the playoff.

Cronin will also be criticized for his decision in the eighth inning in allowing Wally Moses and Johnny Pesky, a pair of left-handed batters to go up and hit against Harry Breechen, a deadly southpaw hurler. Then, in the last of the eighth Cronin elected to pitch Bob Klinger, without trial in the series, in preference to southpaw Earl Johnson who had stopped the Cardinals in a previous game. Cronin has never been popular with Boston fans, and it is a cinch the second-guessers will be after his scalp with the Red Sox beaten for the first time in a world series.

Those so-called experts who earlier in the season were shouting loud and long about Ted Williams being one of the great all-time hitters in baseball will have to pull their ears in. The Boston star had his bat silenced in a fashion that leaves one to believe he is just another good hitter. In seven games Williams, batted an anemic .200, never got one extra base blow and drove in a single run. Imagine comparing such a hitter to chaps like Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Honus Wagner, Eddie Collins and Rogers Hornsby. After all Williams has only been in the big league five years. Wait until he has completed his 10-year stretch then see how his lifetime average in the big time stacks up alongside those of baseball's former greats.

British Empire Ring Titles Get More Recognition

LONDON (CP)—A new deal for Empire boxing aspirants, with Empire titles raised to greater prestige and made open to all members of the Commonwealth, was forecast today by the British Boxing Board of Control.

"Once we are assured that boxing is properly controlled in any country of the Empire and there is a fighter good enough to compete for the title, we shall welcome him and fights can take place here or abroad," said C. F. Donnell, board secretary.

He said the chief concern is that boxers be properly controlled by associations affiliated with the B.B.B.C.

The issue was raised by the impending fight in Australia between Ronnie James of Britain and Australian Vic Patrick. The Empire lightweight title is at stake, though for a time it looked as though the B.B.B.C. would refuse to recognize it as a title fight.

"We have long felt that British Empire titles should be regarded with more importance," said Donnell. "They should be second only to world titles."

There was an opinion that "we wish to keep all the Empire titles in this country, but nothing could be farther from the truth."

Yale Crew Resumes

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Yale University, reinstating crew racing as a major sport after a wartime lapse, announced today the appointment of Allen Walz, formerly at Wisconsin and Manhattan College, as varsity crew coach.

Walz succeeds veteran Ed Leader, formerly of the University of Washington, who dropped out after Yale had suspended the sport early in the war.

Major League Baseball Stars Perform Tonight

With the weather forecast for tonight clear and warmer everything was shipshape for the appearance at the Athletic Park of Earl Mack's touring major league all-star baseballers. The big time performers will go up against an island all-star nine, bolstered by the addition of two well-known Victoria professionals, Doug Peden and Reg Clark.

Umpire Tommy Restell will get the teams away at 7.30 and the advance ticket sale indicates a good crowd will be on hand. Mack and his boys reached the city at noon from Seattle and during the afternoon, majority of them went on sightseeing trips.

Reg Patterson, business manager of the Victoria Athletic and Baseball Co. Ltd., sponsors of the post-season engagement, announced today that Scotty Robinson would be on hand tonight to handle the island all-stars. It is expected that southpaw Stan Curry will be the starting hurler for the amateurs, with Tommy Musgrave, Bill Prior and Lloyd Cann ready for action.

Australia Serious In Preparing For Davis Cup Tennis Defence

SYDNEY (AP)—Despite Jack Crawford's confident assertion Australia would beat the United States by 4 to 1 or 3 to 2 in the Davis Cup challenge, the controllers of Australian tennis are rushing elaborate preparations for the forthcoming match.

Currently the selectors, Crawford, Sir Norman Brooks, Norman Strange and Gerald Patterson, are searching hard for a reserve doubles pair—a team that would give Australia a chance of winning the doubles if John Bromwich and Adrian Quist were unable to do so on the court.

In addition to a strenuous practice program, Australia's Cup players are working out in gyms. They plan to be in top form for the U.S. challenge at Kooyong courts, Melbourne, Dec. 26, 27 and 28. Presumably to keep the players' minds on tennis, the Lawn Tennis Association of Australia has banned members of the Davis Cup squad from writing for newspapers and from giving press interviews.

Bromwich had been a regular contributor to a Sydney newspaper and Quist, Dinny Pails and Geoff Brown all had written bylined tennis articles for other newspapers.

The squad at present comprises Bromwich, Quist, Pails, Brown, Lionel Brodie, Billy Sidwell and Jack Crawford.

SEEK DOUBLES PAIR

Sidwell is rated by many Australian critics one of the country's best doubles players. Brodie is a sound doubles man, but is at home on either court. Crawford has been added to the squad because of his experience and not as a possible cup player.

Every variety of doubles combination has been tried in the search for an alternative to Bromwich-Quist, including the pairing of two doublehanders, Bromwich and Brown. They won the Australian hardcourt doubles title Sept. 7, but did not impress critics as a team.

The big question for the selectors is Quist. He has not played in a tournament for months because of a left knee weakened by sciatica, and a "tennis elbow."

If Quist is fit, he and Bromwich—rated by Crawford the best doubles pair in the world—are virtual certainties for the Davis Cup doubles. Bromwich has partnered every other cup possibility in some tournament or other, but they have not paired with anything like the perfection shown by the Bromwich-Quist combination.

Playing in practice workouts in September, Quist made the selectors much happier about Australia's prospects. While he obviously was careful of his knee, there was nothing wrong with his stroking, and his volleying was as crisp and accurate as in previous days.

Crawford, after watching Quist play five sets against Bromwich, remarked: "Only Quist knows how he feels, but he showed sufficient form to convince me that he will be fit and ready to play in the Davis Cup final."

Harrison Leader In Open Golf With 68

KNOXVILLE Tenn. (AP)—Shooting a four-under-par 68, E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Chicago took a three-stroke lead over the field Wednesday in the opening round of the $10,000 Knoxville invitational golf tournament.

Harrison, with 34 on each leg of the 6,993-yard difficult Holston Hills course, finished in front of Jimmy Hines of Chicago, Herman Keiser of Akron, O., and Ky Lafoon of Orlando, Fla., who were deadlocked with 71.

None of the other 68 entrants broke par and only one other, Henry Ransom of Ravina, Ill., equalled it.

As Cardinals Won World Series

Boston right fielder Wally Moses crosses home plate scoring first run of 7th world series game on Don DiMaggio's sacrifice to right field. Ted Williams (9), next batter, waits to congratulate him. St. Louis Cards, however, won the deciding game, 4 to 3, and took the world series.

Mustangs Will Claim Points For Canceled Big Four Game

Manager Wally Smith of the Victoria Mustangs announced today that the scheduled Big Four game between the Pacific Buckaroos and Victoria Mustangs at Vancouver on Saturday night had been canceled due to the appearance of the touring major league baseball players in Vancouver on that date.

A special meeting of the Big Four has been called for Saturday morning in the mainland city and the revised schedule will be announced following that meeting.

Five delegates from Victoria will attend the parley and will ask that two points be awarded the Victoria team in lieu of the cancellation of the match. Failing that there is a possibility that the locals will enter an American grid set-up with teams from the United States.

Coach Gonzalez Quits St. Louis Cardinals

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The familiar voice of their long-time third base coach will be missing when the St. Louis Cardinals take the field next year.

Cardinal owner Sam Breadon announced today that Mike Gonzalez, Cuban-born coach of the Red Birds since 1934, had been given his unconditional release Wednesday.

The colorful Gonzalez, originator of the famous saying, "Good fied, no hit," asked Breadon and manager Eddie Dyer that he be made a free agent so that he could continue to manage the Havana Reds of the winter Cuban League.

TENNIS WINNERS

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Pauline Betz, United States women's singles champion, and Philippe Washer, member of Belgium's Davis Cup team, won the fifth Pan-American tennis tournament mixed doubles title Wednesday with a 6-2, 8-10, 10-8, victory over the seeded United States combination of Louise Brough and Bob Falkenburg.

Man Reports Seeing Ghost To Policeman—Story Is Logical

Mr. Flynn, a psychic investigator, had a very unusual experience—that of walking, talking and then watching a man disappear into thin air. He wouldn't and didn't believe in ghosts, but one unforgettable act this strange man did when he had walked with and talked to, sent him hurrying to find a policeman.

Bill Wusyk Leader

WINNIPEG (CP)—Billie Wusyk of Calgary Stampedeers virtually has the scoring race in the Western Canada Senior Football League sewn up. He leads his nearest competitor Walter Dobler of Winnipeg Blue Bombers by 20 points with only the Saskatchewan Roughriders at Winnipeg Oct. 19 left to play in the schedule.

Canadian Press statistics give the Calgary homebrew a total of 32 points from eight field goals, four singles and four converts. Dobler holds second place by a slim two-point margin over four other players. They are Bombers' Jim Foubister and Doug Gauthier, Stampedeers' Paul Rowe and Riders' Johnny Bell, all of whom have two touchdowns to their credit.

Interhigh Rugby

In the opening games of the Interhigh School senior B Rugby League Wednesday, Victoria High School Blacks defeated the Golds 11 to 6; Oak Bay High Boys won from the Acorns 11 to 3 and Mount View and Mount Douglas battled to a 3 to 3 tie.

Navy Footballers Capture Lead In Wednesday Soccer

Royal Canadian Navy footballers jumped into top spot in the Wednesday Soccer League as they defeated the hitherto undefeated Hudson's Bay eleven 3 to 1 at Heywood Avenue grounds yesterday afternoon.

In the other match of the day, Spencers shoved the winless Army team deeper into the cellar as they captured their first victory of the young season by a score of 4 to 2.

Better condition paid off for the sailors as they caught the tiring department store eleven near the end of the first half with Vic Dovey scoring two fast goals to erase Kirby Ghent's tally early in the period. Navy added the clincher halfway through the final canto when Harry English beat Sadler with a beautiful goal. It was only through some fine defensive work on the part of the Bay backs that prevented the sailors from adding to their total in the final few minutes.

Spencers saw a two-goal first-half lead wiped out in the first 15 minutes of the second half by Worswick and Sutherland of the Army, but the store lads came back strong in the remaining 30 minutes and sewed up the game with tallies by Kulai and Ball. Kulai notched two goals for the winners and along with E. Ball kept the Spencer offensive alive throughout the second half.

Cut Down Whistle In N.H.L. Games

DETROIT (AP)—Whistle-blowing in National Hockey League games is going to be less frequent this season, says league president Clarence Campbell.

The league's new boss, himself a former referee, was here for the opener between Detroit and Toronto last night and expressed himself as follows: "There'll be a full 60 minutes of action. I've instructed all officials to keep the game moving and to lay off the whistle unless it's absolutely necessary."

Clint Smith Out With Knee Injury

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago Black Hawks' final tune-up for their National Hockey League opener at Boston Sunday night sent veteran centre Clint Smith to the sidelines for three weeks. Smith suffered a knee injury Monday night at the Hawks' defeated Minneapolis Millers, 7 to 3, at Minneapolis. He will be replaced by rookie Hank Blade, up from the Hawks' Kansas City farm club.

Manager Johnny Gottselig led his Black Hawks home after a nine-game exhibition season with the report his front line of the Bentley brothers, Max and Doug, and Bill Mosienko was as fast as ever.

Canadian Legion, Aces, Students Cage Winners

A brand new basketball season opened with a bang at the Victoria High School last night as the evenly matched teams kept the fans on their toes throughout the evening with some good hard play. In the feature match on the night's card, the Canadian Legion barely held off the strong closing rush of Harold Turner's young K.V.'s five to win 36 to 35.

Fans knew they were in for some real fast basketball from the opening match which saw the Chinese Students and St. Louis College battle through five minutes of overtime before the Students emerged with a 32 to 28 victory. Brentwood Aces took the measure of Gar Taylor's Eagles, 30 to 28, in a senior B men's encounter.

The Canadian Legion opened up fast in the first quarter and mainly through some good pot shooting had built up a 13 to 7 lead at the breather. The second quarter was even with the Legion managing to hold their advantage by virtue of a slow breaking type of offence.

With the start of the second half the young K.V.'s started to turn on the heat against the veterans squad, but were not able to close the gap partly because of the one man show put up by Vic Dale who tallied all of his teams points in this canto. Still down six points with only four minutes to go, K.V.'s youth and speed started to tell on the six-man Legion team and they came within an ace of pulling the game out of the fire in the dying second.

DALE TOP MAN

Dale topped all scorers on both teams as he hit the hemp for 17 points. He was closely followed by Angie Stewart with 13. The Legion minus the services of Ollie Goldsmith and Ralph Baker, showed two new additions in the appearance of Bernie Crowe and Don Woodhouse ex-Dominion star. Dick Chungranes of Canadian football fame, Tom Ferris and Ralph Baxter, a six feet six inch centre, were newcomers for the Kayves.

Playing in senior B company this season because of lack of competition in the intermediate A section, Eagles, last season's provincial intermediate B titleholders, were nosed out by Rom Knott's Brentwood Aces in a hard-fought match that saw the undermanned suburbanites tiring in the latter stages, but still having enough in reserve to maintain their lead at the final gun.

Chinese Students and St. Louis College battled on even terms throughout the regulation 40 minutes with the Students erasing a College four-point half-time lead and going on to win by outscoring their opponents six points to two in the five-minute overtime session.

Teams and scores follow:

Legion—Dale 17, Walker 3, Hall 7, Watson 2, Woodhouse 7, Crowe.

K.V.'s—Chungranes 4, Ransom 6, Anderson, McKay 2, McCaghey 1, Stewart 13, Ferris, Baxter 2, Castner 7.

Brentwood—Turner 7, J. Turner 4, Sluggert 5, Benn 12, Yardley 2.

Eagles—McMillan 4, Ellis 4, Ransom 2, Slang 4, Tooby 2, Browning 6, Long 6.

Chinese Students—K. Lee 10, W. Chan, D. Lowe 2, T. Derr 2, J. Johns 14, D. Lee 2, J. Chan.

St. Louis College—French 9, W. O'Brien 4, O'Neill 4, Clark 8, Poskitt 2, Ross, Cavin, Ingram 2, Husband.

Referees—Malcom and Macmurchie.

K.V.'s Majorettes presented a smart drill performance during the intermission.

A TASTY ANTACID

In more ways than one, it will be "Frankie on the spot" tonight when New York Rangers, perennial cellar-dwellers, tread the title-encrusted ice of the Montreal Forum to open their National Hockey League season against the champion Canadiens.

In the league's 1946-47 inaugural at Detroit last night, Toronto Maple Leafs gave early support to predictions of a tighter race by battling to a 3 to 3 draw with the Red Wings, a team that finished last year two places better than the Leafs' fifth. Now it's up to Frankie and his Rangers to draw the extremes together.

From a more personal standpoint, Boucher could use a victory to gain a little more credence for his training camp prediction that Rangers "definitely" will vacate the cellar after their three years' occupancy. Then, there's the fact that this is his first season as full-scale manager, with hardly a Patrick visible in the background.

The Rangers will present few completely new faces, as Boucher's rebuilding program started before the close of the last campaign. The team played 50-50 hockey towards the end, with such additions as the kid line of Cal Gardner, Church Russell and Rene Trudell and defenceman Hal Laycoe from New York Rovers.

The Canadiens will present even less in new blood, with George Allen of Chicago Hawks replacing Dutch Hiller on the forward wall as their only change. One of last year's champions will be temporarily missing, centre Buddy O'Connor still nursing a hard broken in an early exhibition tilt.

If the game lives up to the Detroit opener, then league president Clarence Campbell's opening promise of thrills galore in this 180-game season can be accepted. The Leafs and the Wings battled hammer and tons before 12,756 cash customers before Sid Abel's 20-foot shot with 11 seconds to play finally deadlocked it.

PULL GOALIE

The marker came after Wings had yanked goalie Harry Lumley to play six men up for that face-off.

The game was replete with penalties, 12 in all and one of them a major for fighting to Detroit's Adam Brown. It was the same Brown who got the only counter scored while either team was short-handed, beating goalie Turk Broda with Toronto's Howie Meeker serving a penalty.

The Toronto scorers were veteran Bob Goldham, rookie defenceman Garth Boesch and Harry Watson, obtained from Detroit in the deal that sent Billy Taylor to the Wings. Rookie Gordon Howe got Detroit's other marker.

The single games at Detroit and Montreal prelude full-scale jousting this week-end, with the Red Wings and the Leafs at Toronto Saturday night while Boston Bruins are at Montreal. Sunday, the Red Wings are at home to the Rangers and Hawks visit Boston.

SUMMARY

First period—Scoring, none. Penalties, Ezinicki (2), Howe, Jackson.

Second period—1, Detroit, Brown (unassisted), 7:02; 2, Toronto, Goldham (Ezinicki, Watson), 12:59; 3, Detroit, Howe (Brown, Abel), 13:39; 4, Toronto, Watson (Apps), 19:01. Penalties, Meeker (2), Ezinicki, Howe.

Third period—5, Toronto, Boesch (Kennedy), 16:17; 6, Detroit, Abel (Simpson), 19:49. Penalties, Thompson, Mortson, Brown (major), Lynn.

Veterans Allotted 20 Tillicum Suites

The first 20 two-room suites in the former army camp at Tillicum and Carey Roads were allotted to war veterans and their families Tuesday afternoon by officials of Pro Patria and Britannia branches of the Canadian Legion, who met at the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council headquarters.

The suites, converted by the Canadian Legion branches for use by war veterans, will be ready for occupancy by Nov. 1. A few more suites remain to be converted in the camp.

Selection of tenants, officials said, was on the basis of urgency of need.

Greek Orthodox priests in long, gownlike coats. The Mohammedan members had red fezzes on their heads, and looked just like Turks. I saw one with a green turban, which was a sign that he had been to Mecca.

The tall Montenegrins wore blue jackets and baggy trousers. The speaker of the Assembly sat high above the members, and there was a portrait of the king behind him. On his desk was an oriental rug.

If that traveler had been reporting at the present time, he would have left out the words about some members looking "just like Turks." Thanks to Kemal Ataturk, Turkish men gave up wearing the fez more than 20 years ago, and Turkish women stopped wearing veils at the same time. Kemal Ataturk used public laws to force changes in fashions.

Yet Yugoslavia has many citizens of the same faith as the Turks. The Moslem religion has a strong hold in the country. More than 1,500,000 of the people give honor to Mohammed.

The big majority of the people are Christians, but the Christians are divided into two great groups—the Greek Orthodox and the Roman Catholic. Most of the Serbs in the nation are Greek Orthodox, while most of the Croats and Slovenes are Roman Catholic.

Partly because of difference in religion, the groups in Yugoslavia have failed to get along well together. Some of the people, however, have risen above this difference, and have worked hard to keep the nation united.

PEOPLE OF YUGOSLAVIA HAVE THREE MAIN RELIGIONS

Shortly after the end of the First World War an American traveler visited Yugoslavia, and watched the National Assembly at work in Belgrade. Here, in shortened form, is his account of what he saw:

"There were about 200 members present, and they were dressed in all sorts of costumes. Many of them wore homespun garments of peasants. Others had on clothes like those of western business men, and looked very much like congressmen at Washington.

Will Take College Three Days To Move Furniture and Equipment

An air of quiet contentment and satisfaction is prevalent throughout students and staff of Victoria College as they go about making plans to move within a month, Dr. J. M. Ewing, principal, said today.

"We feel it was a very reasonable and just arrangement," Dr. Ewing said.

He estimated it will take three days to move the furniture and equipment, when the transfer is ready to be made, and will probably take several days more to get the library set up in new quarters.

The army hut which was recently moved on to the grounds of Craigdarroch will be moved over to the Normal School, and may be used either for a laboratory or for office quarters for the science staff. The college has the promise of one more army building for conversion into a laboratory and is on the market for two more.

Investigation is being made into the possibility of moving the biology laboratory building, which now stands on the grounds of Craigdarroch to the Normal School grounds, too.

"HAPPY SOLUTION"

Austin I. Curtis, chairman of the Greater Victoria School Board, said he felt the moving of Victoria College was "a very happy solution to the difficult problem," and he expressed appreciation for the quick action taken by the provincial government on the matter.

He said the school board is now awaiting official notification from the Department of Education on the details of the move, how expenses are to be divided, and other administrative details. The matter will probably come up for discussion at Monday's school board meeting.

Mayor Percy George and Ald. H. M. Diggon, chairman of the fire wardens, also voiced appreciation of the action taken by the provincial government. "I think this is a step in the right direction in the face of a difficult situation," the mayor said, while Ald. Diggon said the fire wardens were extremely gratified at the solution offered.

Victoria Oak Makes Lovely Picture

"Arms Outstretched," a print by Bette Kerkham, secretary of the Victoria Camera Club, is one of the many fine photographs hung in the Sixth Annual International Salon of Photography at the Empress Hotel last week. This was one of 37 Canadian photographs accepted for the salon. From the United States, Britain and Brazil, 136 were accepted.

Judge Rules Tenants To Vacate Property

"I can find nothing in the law preventing a landlord from offering his property for sale after obtaining permission from the rentals appraiser to vacate the tenants," said Judge H. H. Shandley in County Court in handing down judgment today in favor of Phyllis Leeden, landlord of a house on 240 Memorial Crescent.

The case arose when Mrs. Leeden applied to the rentals appraiser for a permit to give a notice to vacate two tenants, Hugh and Edith Graham, on the grounds that she desired possession of the accommodation for the purpose of converting it into flats.

The notice to vacate was duly served on the tenants but they refused to leave on the ground that after the landlord gave notice to vacate she advertised the property for sale, and therefore the application of the rentals appraiser was not bona fide.

The judge ruled that the landlord was at liberty at any time to try and find a purchaser but could not make a sale unless she first obtained the written consent of the rentals appraiser. In her case she had tried to find a purchaser but had not completed a sale.

Application was granted by the judge to Mrs. Leeden to vacate her tenants with costs payable by the tenants to the landlord.

The Zeta Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority has written the City Council asking that the municipal license fee of $20 a day for artistic exhibitions, be removed, as it is a detriment to the cultural development of Victoria.

Rifle Clubs Popular In Northern Villages

Military rifle associations formed in settlements served by Royal Canadian Signals radio stations in the Northwest Territories have attracted widespread interest, National Defence Headquarters reported today.

As the number of army personnel is small in these small settlements, where chief diversions formerly were horseshoe-pitching and fishing, local civilians have been granted charter memberships in the rifle associations.

Community Chest Now Has $78,579

With the official closing of the Community Chest campaign, total returns stood at $78,579, it was announced today by Denis Hagar, Community Chest president, leaving just over $21,000 to be collected to attain the $100,000 objective.

Auditors at Prince Robert House are still working on donations which poured in during the last two days of the campaign, and hope for more complete figures by the beginning of the week.

"A number of substantial donations are known to be among those we have not entered in the books yet," Mr. Hagar said, "and we have hopes that when everything is wound up by the end of the month we will not be far short of our objective."

Some canvassers are still on the job, Mr. Hagar said, and donations will be received at campaign headquarters in Prince Robert House until the end of the month.

B.C.E.R. Reorganizes Pension Scheme; To Cost $7,000,000

Complete reorganization of the B.C. Electric's pension system and establishment of a new and broader plan which is estimated will cost the company $7,000,000 was announced by A. E. "Dal" Grauer, president of the company today.

Main feature of the new scheme is the fact that company employees who have been more than three years on the staff will, on retirement, obtain 50 per cent higher pensions than under the old scheme. The new plan is operated on a joint contributory basis, while the old one was financed solely by the company.

Funds and interest rates are guaranteed by the federal government, which William M. Mercer, authority on pension underwriting, stated to be the "biggest pension scheme in the country to be guaranteed by the Canadian government or a private insurance company."

Approximately 80 per cent of the B.C.E.R.'s 6,417 employees have been with the company more than three years and are eligible for immediate participation in the plan.

To make the plan retroactive for many of its long-service employees the company has provided a fund of $7,000,000.

Basically the scheme will provide for pensions up to a $100 a month maximum, toward which the employee will contribute 4 per cent of his earnings, and the company will contribute a slightly larger sum.

France Aids Libraries

The French government, which before the war took little interest in the welfare of France's libraries, has now swung over to a deep interest in them, according to Mlle. Paule Nancel-Penard, Le Havre librarian, visiting Victoria today.

For a long time, Mlle. Nancel-Penard said, few people took advantage of the libraries in France mainly because the state did not seem to take much interest in the libraries which they owned.

However, she continued, since 1943, there has been a director of libraries in the French Ministry of Education, giving the libraries someone who could speak directly in their interests.

Building permits have been issued to S. Gurney to alter a house at 1270 Basil Street at a cost of $1,000; to E. E. Dorland to build a 4-room house on West Street costing $4,000; to D. Gift parcels from Canada for the United Kingdom containing food and other articles may now be sent under normal conditions and up to the usual 20-pound weight limit. Postmaster G. H. Gardner says. Parcels must be marked as gifts and be unsolicited. The regular 15 and 20-pound parcel post rates will apply to all parcels weighing over 10 pounds from Canada to the United Kingdom.

Electric and gas appliance dealers of Victoria this week will take part in the first of a series of nine sales-training conferences aimed at familiarizing them with many of the new developments in the appliance and public utility fields generally. The conferences will commence Thursday night at the Victoria Truth Centre. The series is being sponsored by the B.C. Electric Railway Company's dealer development division and will comprise lectures and visual sales-training films, the latter prepared under the supervision of the Edison Electric Institute.

At the annual meeting of the Victoria Choral and Orchestral Union the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. S. Miller; vice-president, G. Dodman; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. Plummer; executive members, H. Curtis, B. Griffin, Mrs. W. Anders and Mrs. H. Sherratt. Plans are going forward for the 12th annual performance of Handel's Messiah, to be given on Dec. 15, under the conductorship of Thomas Jenkins. All members are urged to attend rehearsal next Tuesday evening, at 8, in Memorial Hall, and new members are cordially invited.

Former Jap Governor Of Hongkong To Die

CANTON (AP)—Lt. Gen. Hsiao kazu Tanaka, governor of Hongkong during the Japanese occupation, was sentenced to death by a Chinese military court today on war crimes charges.

Tanaka already was under a death sentence imposed by a U.S. military court at Shanghai for the execution of an American pilot. He heard the second verdict without any show of emotion.

Chinese Navy Wins

CANTON (AP)—The official Central News Agency today reported the Chinese navy had won "a sea battle" against a pirate fleet, forcing the freebooters to abandon the gunboat Hai Hsing and the transport Hai Tung, seized recently by outlaws.

Oak Bay Approves Transport Plans Without Change

Specifications for a Greater Victoria transportation franchise were approved at a committee meeting of Oak Bay Council Wednesday evening, Reeve Walter Walker reported today.

Oak Bay's approval brings to three the Greater Victoria governing bodies which have approved terms of the franchise. Victoria and Esquimalt councils gave their approval Monday. On Friday, Saanich council will meet to consider the recommendations of the Greater Victoria transportation committee.

Veterans' Widows May Seek Credits

Widows of war veterans who have died since discharge from the services may now apply for the veterans' re-establishment credits, S. H. Okell, assistant district administrator of the Department of Veterans' Affairs, announced today.

Dependent mothers of ex-servicemen may also apply for the re-establishment credits, provided they received their support solely from the deceased.

The credits may be used by widows and dependent mothers for any of the purposes for which veterans may use them. The credits will be granted only in cases in which the ex-serviceman died following his discharge, and was entitled to benefits at the time of his death. Widows who have remarried will not be eligible.

Traffic Fines

For a variety of traffic violations, 50 motorists paid a total of $265 in fines this morning in city police court, to beat Wednesday mark by $23.

A. Palmquist and W. Barker were fined $35 each by Magistrate Henry Hall when they pleaded guilty to charges of dangerous driving. The former also had his driver's license suspended for three months.

Thirty persons paid $250 fines each for parking infractions. There was a $10 fine imposed on a motorcyclist for using a red light which shone in the direction he was proceeding. A driver who was soliciting cab fares in an unauthorized zone, was fined $10. Other fines were for violating traffic signals, making a left turn in traffic signal areas, for speeding and exceeding the speed limit in a school zone.

The 31st Alberta Battalion Association has written the City Council complaining about "the deplorable condition of the picnic facilities at Goldstream Park," stating that the benches, benches and tables have all been removed.

Naval Facilities Here Thrown Open To Public

Highlight of the Navy Week program to start Sunday will be opening of the cruiser Uganda, the destroyer Crescent and the frigate Charlottetown for public inspection in the harbor and the opportunity given the public Wednesday to actually participate to as great an extent as possible in the operation of various naval equipment.

The program for Navy Week is as follows:

Sunday, 11 a.m.—Church parade of the Royal Canadian Sea Cadet Corps to Christ Church Cathedral, and, afternoon, sailing races in service whalers between the Royal Canadian Navy and the Royal Victoria Yacht Club off Esquimalt and Royal Roads.

Monday, 5:15 p.m.—Sunset ceremony at the Parliament Buildings with R.C.N. band, guard and field gun, and Sea Cadets night at Prince Robert House.

Wednesday, 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.—H.M.C.S. Uganda, Crescent and Charlottetown on display at the government jetty in Esquimalt, and displays at H.M.C.S. Uganda.

Display program is as follows: Depth charge drill from 1:30 to 4:30; fire fighting at 2:30 and 3:30; diving display from 1:30 to 4:30; naval moving pictures at 2, 3 and 4; boat manoeuvres at 1:30, 2:30, 3:30 and 4:30; firing torpedoes from Crescent from 1:30 to 4:30; band concert from 3 to 4, and firing dummy depth charges from Charlottetown from 1:45 to 4:15.

Saanich Teacher, W. R. Jones, Dies

William Roy Jones, 54, teacher of commercial subjects at Mount View High School, and a teacher in Saanich schools for the past 23 years, died early today at his home, 935 Selkirk Avenue.

Mount View High School was closed for the day as a mark of respect for Mr. Jones. Dr. J. M. Thomas, principal of the school, said: "I should like to say that his character, attitude and work were of such quality that his passing is a distinct loss to the school and the profession in general. I know of no one in his educational field who has his qualities in a greater degree."

Mr. Jones, a native of Saint John, N.B., was first appointed to the Saanich school system in September, 1923, after taking his training in Fredericton, N.B., and teaching for seven years elsewhere in British Columbia. He taught in Saanich elementary schools for several years, was principal of McKenzie Avenue School in 1929 and then became commercial teacher at Mount View High School.

He also was boys' counsellor at the High School, and was in charge of visual education. During the past summer he taught commercial subjects at the Summer School of Education.

Mr. Jones was a member of Confederation 116, A.F. and A.M. Funeral arrangements are being made by Hayward's B.C. Funeral Co.

Mr. King To Discuss Drew's Charges

OTTAWA (CP)—A spokesman for Prime Minister King said today Mr. King would discuss with his cabinet colleagues a charge by Premier Drew of Ontario that the Prime Minister was breaking faith with the provinces in the matter of resumption of the Dominion-Provincial Conference.

The spokesman was referring to statements by Mr. Drew made in an exchange of correspondence with Mr. King which the Ontario Premier made public in Toronto Wednesday night. (See page 9.)

The spokesman quoted Mr. King as saying his first intimation of Mr. Drew's latest letter was when he read the text of it in the press this morning. The letter itself did not reach Mr. King at his office here until 10 a.m. today.

Suspension Of S.P.C.A. Charter Protested

A resolution was passed at a public meeting of the Victoria Branch of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals protesting against the suspension of the branch's charter by the British Columbia parent body.

Supporters who attended the meeting at Crystal Garden called for immediate action to secure the return of the charter following an address by James Barr, president, who said that Ralph Chetwynd, president of the parent body, had made no attempt to discuss the matter with Victoria officials.

Legal proceedings, it was indicated, will be taken in an attempt to have the order restraining officers from disposing of assets rescinded. Robert D. Harvey, K.C., has been retained to appeal the case.

Here Thrown For Navy Week

Continuous displays will be held in the torpedo school, gunnery school, anti-aircraft school, seamanship school, mechanical training establishment and model steam plant.

All displays will end at 5 in order to give the public time to witness the sunset ceremony on the parade ground at 5:15. The public is requested to leave Naden by way of the east gate.

Thursday—1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. H.M.C.S. Uganda, Crescent and Charlottetown open to visitors at Victoria, and an invitation dance to the R.C.N. at Prince Robert House.

Saturday—10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.—Land battalion, cadets from R.C.N. college and R.C.N. band will march through the city. Rear-Admiral E. R. Mainguy, O.B.E., R.C.N., Commanding Officer Pacific Coast, will take the salute. From 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m., H.M.C.S. Uganda and Crescent, at Victoria, H.M.C.S. Royal Roads, H.M.C. Dockyard and H.M.C.S. Naden, open to visitors. From 9 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., dance at Prince Robert House.

Sunday—1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m., H.M.C.S. Uganda and Crescent, at Victoria, and H.M.C. Dockyard and H.M.C.S. Naden open to visitors.

Visit Of Writers May Have Prompted Goering's Suicide

BY KINGSBURY SMITH
Representing the Combined American Press

NUERNBERG (AP)—A visit by eight Allied correspondents to death row in the condemned block of Nuernberg jail late Tuesday night may have prompted ex-Reichsmarshal Herman Goering to take the poison which enabled him to cheat the gallows of Allied justice.

As one of those eight correspondents, I believe the commotion caused by our visit may have served to tip off Goering and the other condemned men that the hour of their doom was about to strike.

As the correspondents, escorted by several security officers, shuffled through the narrow corridor, peeking into the small iron-barred portholes of each of the condemned men's cells, it naturally caused a stir.

At the front of each cell door stood a soldier guard whose duty it was to keep constant watch on the man inside the cell. I noticed at the time that some of the guards turned around to see what the commotion was about as we entered and started to move along the corridor.

With most of the correspondents, including the writer, stopping to glance over the shoulders of the guards into the condemned cells, it was only human for some of the American soldiers to turn their heads momentarily to see what was going on.

It is possible that in the moment, or moments, the soldier guarding Goering's cell turned his head and the crown prince of Nazidom managed to slip into his mouth the vial containing the cyanide of potassium.

Japs Not Ready For Democracy Yet Says Returned Man

BRANTFORD, Ont. (CP)—Sgt. Maj. Tatsuro (Buck Suzuki) of the Canadian Army Intelligence corps has returned from Japan and expresses opinion that the United Nations have only a slim chance of making Japan into a democracy within one generation.

"I saw a great deal with the intelligence division that an ordinary soldier does not see," the Japanese-Canadian N.C.O. said. "I am convinced that though the Japanese people are treated well by the Allies—they are not ready in this generation to absorb democracy. One reason for this is that the policies of the Allies may be excellent, but the administration is still in the hands of the Japanese, and if it is bad... the Japanese are going to blame... the allies."

The Vancouver-born soldier said it would be unwise to force or permit Canadian citizens of Japanese birth to return to Japan and possibly complain about the treatment they had received from a democratic government. "They are going back with a grievance. They can do a great deal of harm to the future peace of the world with the stories they will have to tell. Because... they have lived under a democracy—they will have a great deal of influence."

Sentence Reduced By Appeal Court

Sixty-four-year-old George Roediger had his penitentiary sentence reduced from 20 years to 15 years after pleading his case before the Court of Appeal. The court, however, dismissed his appeal against a conviction of attempted murder arising out of firing a shotgun at his stepson, Don Galloway, on a Surrey farm near New Westminster. Roediger pleaded in court that he had fired the gun in self-defense and that he had not been given a fair hearing when tried before an Assize Court in New Westminster.

Hiram Walker Drops 2½ Points

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market backed water again today with little real pressure in evidence during the greater part of the proceedings.

Volume tapered after an active opening. Extreme losses, ranging from one to three generally—a few "thin" issues dropped six or more—were trimmed here and there near the close, but buying was notably timid and many pivots held to around the day's lows.

Led by Hiram Walker's 2½ point loss, Canadian issues tapered off at midday. McIntyre slipped ¼ and Canadian Pacific and Distillers Seagram each eased ¼. On the curb, Lake Shore was off ¼.

Today's averages closed as follows:
30 Industrials 171.84, off 2.51
20 rails 47.59, off 1.05
15 utilities 34.68, off .48
65 stocks 61.74, off 1.01
Total sales 1,310,000.

Grain

WINNIPEG (CP)—Rye futures prices declined rather sharply on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today despite substantial buying by shippers, exporters and other interests who came in at the lower levels.

Small gains were scored in early trading but these were lost when selling entered in response to weakness at Chicago. Trading was quite active.

Papers Easier After Upswing

MONTREAL (CP)—Papers were easier after their recent upswing and other pivotal groups were irregular in trading up to the final hour today.

Papers ran into some profit realization. Down were Fraser, Price, M. & O., Abitibi common and preferred, St. Lawrence common and A. Brown, Dryden, Donnanconna and Consolidated.

Stronger in industrials were Vickers preferred, which jumped ½ cent, preferred, Cockshutt Canada Sugar, Foundries, Electroflux and Ontario Steel. In beverages, Walker and Sicks posted gains.

Gatineau and Power Corporation improved in utilities. Pato was ahead in golds and Lake Shore in arrears. Sullivan, Goldvue and Central Cadillac chalked up decreases in junior mines. Santiago wiped out a deficit.

Lake of the Woods, following a stock bonus announcement, and Paul did better in miscellaneous.

Montreal averages:
20 Industrials 120.50, off .97
10 utilities 73.90, up .01
30 combined 105.00, off .04
10 pulp paper 325.35, off 8.66
15 golds 70.75, up .10

4-Point Losses In Industrials

TORONTO (CP)—Losses widened in the early afternoon today and all four groups showed sizable losses at the close. Weakness of the New York board influenced the trend here and the bids were lowered over the board. There were losses ranging up to four points in the industrial section at the close.

Paper, liquor, utility and building stocks lost ground and the foods had about as many losses as gains. Gordon McKay lost 4 points and Aluminum 3.

Selling of Osisko Lake was active and the price weakened about 15 cents or more. Selling of Sherritt Gordon was renewed and the price touched 2.03 before getting some buying support that rallied the price a few cents. The loss of the day was around 15 cents.

Calgary-Edmonton and Royallite were weaker western oils.

Toronto index:
20 Industrials 175.32, off 1.81
20 golds 96.81, off .54
10 base metals 79.70, off 1.14
15 west oils 21.34, off .01
Total sales 714,000.

Herring Pack Lags
British Columbia's herring pack for the current season, like other fish canning operations this year, is lagging behind previous years.

Bulletin No. 2 of the director of western fisheries on herring production showed the total pack to last Saturday at 49,542 cases. Last year at that date 111,150 cases had been packed.

Production in the lower east coast region has been 1,685 tons.

Salmon Pack Down
With the salmon fishing season about ended, only 49,256 cases of salmon were canned during last week, the weekly bulletin of the director of western fisheries showed today.

Barge Workers To Return To Work Under Agreement

Dock and warehouse workers of the Vancouver Barge Transportation Ltd. here, who refused Wednesday to return to work without higher pay, have returned to work on the basis of the agreement between the company and the Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, Local 510, Vancouver, company officials announced here today.

The agreement, which was approved by the National War Labor Board in Ottawa, went into effect Tuesday.

Company officials stated that all of their other employees at Vancouver, Nanaimo and Courtenay were working on the same basis, and that the raising of wages from 67 cents to 80 cents an hour, or a 13-cent-an-hour increase, is in keeping with similar awards recently made by W.L.B. to offset the increased cost of living.

The company has now set a steady group of men at their Victoria dock with a guarantee of 40 hours' work per week between 8 in the morning and 5 in the afternoon, and will pay time and one-half for all hours worked before 8 in the morning, after 5 in the afternoon and on all legal holidays.

3 Island Companies Among Registered

One Woman's Day

SOMEWHERE OR OTHER recently I read that, despite the growing popularity of films of sex-appeal, musical or psychological theme, the old "Westerns" still have a very big following.

Hard-ridin', hard-shootin' cowboy heroes, who out-ride and out-shoot cattle rustlers and hold-up men, and out-wit old-time gamblers and other bad men, still compete successfully with the "glamour girls" for the admiration of male fans—both young and old.

While "comic strips" depicting the exciting adventures of "bold buckaroos" and Wild West desperadoes, are avidly devoured by young readers.

All of which suggests that time hasn't yet removed all the flavor of romance and color associated with the "he-man" of the frontier days of the old west and its wide-open spaces.

THAT'S WHY I am drawing attention to the centenary this year of a man who was, perhaps, the forerunner of all Wild West heroes—that almost legendary figure, "Buffalo Bill."

His real name was William F. Cody, and he was born on an Iowa farm, being one of a family of five girls and two boys, according to an article by Peter Esslemont, author of "Brithers A'."

When Bill was 11, his father was killed by a crowd of "pro-slavery" ruffians who objected to his opposing the extension of slavery to the northern states.

As the support of the family devolved upon him, as the eldest, Bill got a job as "extra" with army contractors. This involved scouting and keeping in touch with the drivers of the supplies.

These supplies had to be drawn over 1,000 miles in trains

Start Bus Transfers

Exchange of transfers between Blue Line buses and B.C. Electric Railway vehicles started Wednesday, with B.C.E.R. officials renewing their plea to tram riders not to try and switch to the buses when they could ride streetcars because the buses are already carrying capacity loads.

All B.C.E.R. passes will be accepted on any Blue Line bus, but only Blue Line $1 passes will be acceptable on B.C.E.R. vehicles. No transfers will be given on the 50-cent passes or on the 5-cent fares of the Blue Line.

John F. Cloke, whose parents reside at 500 Olive Street, was a member of the search party which rescued a fisherman who fractured his leg and was lost in the Similkameen Canyon, near Princeton, B.C., last month. Mr. Cloke, with the help of Dr. Paul Phillips, hauled the victim 1,000 feet from the river to the railway track by tying a rope to a stretcher and keeping a snap around a tree stump.

Uganda Gets Ensign From Africa

Raising the silk white ensign aboard H.M.C.S. Uganda at Esquimalt Wednesday, the gift of the people of the Territory of Uganda, South Africa. Sir Alexander Clutterbuck, new high commissioner to Canada for the United Kingdom made the presentation as well as an official flag of Uganda with the remark, "that 3,500,000 people of Uganda have given the flags to the Canadian cruiser, H.M.C.S. Uganda as a token of friendship to the people of Canada." Capt. Kenneth Adams, officer commanding Uganda, is shown, back to camera, with four rings on his sleeve, saluting the ensign.

Early Resident Of Victoria Dies

Mrs. Olena Kristin Christianson, 91, a resident of Victoria, for 56 years, died Tuesday at her residence at 2817 Dysart Road.

Born in Iceland, Mrs. Christianson came to Canada with her husband in 1887, settling first at Winnipeg. Three years later the pair moved to Victoria. Mr. Christianson died a few weeks after they had celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary, in 1940.

Until last year, Mrs. Christianson designed and made needlework of all descriptions, but was forced to give up this work because of failing eyesight.

Mrs. Christianson is survived by two daughters, Mrs. F. Turgoose and Miss Jane Christianson, both of Victoria.

Funeral services will be held in the chapel of Sands Mortuary Ltd., Friday, at 1.30, interment at Colwood Burial Park.

New Safety Lanes For Oak Bay Schools

Establishment of two new safety lanes for schoolchildren, recommended by Chief of Police H. C. F. Reston, and additional safety markings were approved by Oak Bay Council, meeting Wednesday evening.

Chief Reston recommended painting of a lane across Oak Bay Avenue from the northeast corner of Wilmot Place to the old high school where 60 pre-primary pupils are now registered.

The chief also recommended painting of a pedestrian lane across Cadboro Bay Road from Dalhousie Street where children pass on their way to Willows School.

The additional recommendation covered painting of indicator lines on Oak Bay Avenue at points east and west of the old high school.

Advocates National Agricultural Study

A national policy of agricultural research was advocated by Gordon O'Brien, general secretary of the Agricultural Institute of Canada, at a meeting of the Victoria and Island Branch, as more productive of results over a period of time than a provincial or isolated effort.

Mr. O'Brien said strong financial support is being received from various industrial concerns for the organization's scholarship fund designed to co-ordinate and promote research in problems pertaining to Canada's agricultural industry.

E. R. Hall, assistant superintendent of the Saanichton Experimental Station was appointed secretary-treasurer of the branch, succeeding Bruce Dickson, recently transferred to Agassiz.

Perhaps Palm producers pamper their cows. Yet when it comes to milk, it is better to err on the side of safety.

Through sanitary sunlit barns, careful grooming of cows and the constant testing of herds, Palm producers maintain top standards in modern dairy cow management.

Thus, even as a raw market, you know that Palm milk is the purest that skilled attention can make it. Then pasteurization makes assurance doubly sure. You may depend on the purity of Palm milk products.

6 STEPS TO PALM PURITY...

1. Herds and farm buildings are regularly inspected.
2. The raw product is regularly analyzed for bacteria count.
3. Every can is inspected by an expert milk grader.
4. Milk is pasteurized by latest methods.
5. Cans are sterilized before returning to farm.
6. Bottles are thoroughly washed and sterilized.

HERE ARE THE TIRES THAT OUTWEAR PRE-WAR TIRES

The new B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns are different from tires of the past. They are made of a new kind of rubber developed by B. F. Goodrich. This new rubber is tougher, cooler running, more resistant to road bruises.

The new Silvertown bodies are engineered differently... with more and better cords, making them 35% stronger. They are made in different tread designs... including the famous Life-Saver Tread that wipes wet pavements dry... and the Road-Level Tread that puts a wider, flatter rubber surface on the road to share the burden.

Both these tires are new and both will outwear pre-war tires. Insist on the new Silvertowns for your car... they are the greatest mileage tires of all time... built by B. F. Goodrich, makers of over 32,000 rubber articles including foot-wear and industrial rubber products.
